

Savannah Morning News
Thursday, April 17, 1969

Samuel B. Baker

ESTILL, S.C. — Samuel Broughton Baker, 45, died Wednesday in a Savannah hospital.

The native of Savannah was a veteran of World War II and was owner of the Estill Florist Shop.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Margaret Camp Baker Estill; a daughter, Miss Peg Baker attending Duke University in Durham, N.C.; two sons, Samuel B. Baker Jr. attending Clemson and David B. Baker Estill; three brothers, W. Baker Jr., A. M. Baker and C. Baker of Estill; two sisters, Mrs. W. F. Speights Jr. of Atlanta and Mrs. Jimmy Bell Charleston, S.C.; his step-mother, Mrs. Sarah White Baker Estill.

Peeples-Holland Funeral Home is in charge.