

To Rent.

The Subscriber offers his PLANTATION on May River, for a term of years. On the Plantation Tract is four hundred and fifty acres, about one hundred of which is prime blue clay river land, equal to any inland swamp in the Parish, under good dams, and commands all the waters of said river, with a good reserve, and not more than a mile and a half from a landing. Also, about one hundred and twenty acres old field land, well adapted to Provisions and short staple Cotton, under good fences. On the premises is a good Dwelling House, rather out of repair, a new Gin House, with a complete saw gin, with iron cogs, Barn, Corn, and six Negro Houses, with other out building, and an excellent range of every kind.

ALSO,

His Pine Land Residence, adjoining, containing three hundred and fifty acres, about one hundred acres of which is prime cleared Land, suitable for black seed Cotton. On the premises is a good Dwelling House, Kitchen, servants' House, Stable, &c. with a Peach Orchard of one hundred trees. The subscriber will hire them separate or both together. For terms, apply to the subscriber, on the Plantation.

RICHARD BLAND,

July 6
