

22 MEETING STREET
CHARLESTON
SOUTH CAROLINA 24901

Nov. 26th, 1965

Dear Reverend Peoples:

Mrs Remelle Sims Brown, Librarian of the State Supreme Court, has written me of your descent from Edmund Polun and your ownership of his valuable "Autobiography" - which I have seen and am a photostat from. The auto -

2
Tropaeolical page with coats of arms.
I secured this at the New York Public Library some years ago.

My husband, the late Captain George C. Logan, U. S. A. Retired. who passed away a year ago, was a direct descendant of Edmund Polk through Nicholas Polk his son.
When you consult your chart you will see that one daughter

3.

22 MEETING STREET
CHARLESTON
SOUTH CAROLINA 24901

of Nicholas Polk married Julia^{Peter} Girardeau, the other daughter married Richard Polk & Mary Polk Polk married William Logan 1724-1802 in 1750. The line of descent is direct to my husband & therefore my daughter & grandsons.
I can send more data & proof should you want it. Any thing ym leave on the Polun line would be of great interest and assistance to me. I am working on a HOGAN genealogy with a Ben Adams Cramer & ^{he is} planning to publish same.

Yours sincerely

Rachel D. Logan

(Mrs George C. Logan)

1 Mrs Logan

2 Dr George Logan

3 Mrs Logan

4 Rev George Christian Logan

5 Revell George Logan

6 George Christian Logan
Captain US A