

Erby O. Cater, 61, Retired Merchant, Dies

SENECA

Erby O. Cater, 61, died Sunday.

Born in Oconee County, he was a son of Mrs. Clara Wilson Cater Smith and the late Clarence Cater. He was a retired merchant, a veteran of World War II, a lay-minister and a member of Old Hephzibah Baptist Church No. 1.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Winola Edmonds Cater; his mother of Walhalla; two brothers, Woodrow Cater of Liberty and Davis Cater of Seneca; and a sister, Mrs. W.C. (Maybelle) Baldwin of Liberty.

Services will be held at 3 p.m. Tuesday at Old Hephzibah Baptist Church No. 1, with burial in Wolfstake Baptist Church cemetery, Walhalla.

McDougald Funeral Home is in charge.

The State - Mon. 21 Feb 83