Dear Robert:

I have some information in regard to the Lt-Col. William Farr who married Elizabeth Stribling (as his second wife) in the Union District. This definitely confirms our suspicion that these people are definitely not my ancestors.

The ladies in my family who prepared their pedigrees for admission to the D.A.R. around the turn of the century were correct up to the Thomas Farr who married Elizabeth Waring. But there they erred in assuming he was a son of Lt-Col. Wm Farr of the Union District. I used the same pedigree when I joined the S.A.R. in 1938 and so I made the same error. If you will take a few minutes to scan the attached information on the Wm. Farr and Elizabeth Stribling - branch I think you will agree with my conclusion that we need no further research so far as the Union District Farris are concerned because they are not related to me. With them out of the picture it should be a relatively easy task to work back from The Thomas Farr who married Elizabeth Waring. I think I have enough information here to do the job so it will not be necessary for you to bother with the matter. None the less, the help and information is very much appreciated.

I hope we did not disturb you last week about McConnell's "Ancestral Peregrinations". Pat Nicholson was very favorably impressed with the idea of the U.T. Foundation publishing a few hundred copies for distribution to genealogical societies and universities as we did with 'Chronicles of Fleetwood' House. However if you have the slightest objection to this being done - let's just forget it. Some editing and deletions as well as possibly some additions would be necessary, of course.

Since getting my copy I have re read Thomas Costans four volumes dealing with the Plantagenets and noted with interest the various references to the Bohuns and other individuals in "Peregrinations". I don't know that Constans is considered to be a serious historian but he certainly makes these characters come to life.

My eldest grandson Charles Wilson Borends who graduated in medicine from the University of Va and has just finished his internship is opening a clinic with two of his friends in Goose Creek, Colleton County in the near future - Is this a coincidence?

Sorry joins in best wishes for a happy Holiday season and the new year -

Sincerely

Charles

P.S. Have just received copies and a letter from Mrs McConnell - as per the attached. which I will discuss with Pat Melanson after the Holiday also re re the Bohun Peary
