

P. J. BARTHEL
73 ABINGTON AVENUE
NEWARK, N. J.

Oct 28, 1935.

Mr James P. Chapman
Suwanee, Ga.

Dear Sir - In reply to your favor of the 15th inst. relative to my fathers ancestry am sorry to say I can give very little information. He knew he was born in England & ran away from home when he was a young boy. He had a brother Tom who resided in Philadelphia & one named Jim who we think lived in New York. He also had a relative who was knighted by Queen Victoria named Sir Morton Peto. He visited this country some 50 years ago &
was generally entertained. The inf.

P. J. BARTHEL
73 ABINGTON AVENUE
NEWARK, N. J.

Herald contained quite an account of a dinner given in his honor.

My father married Miss Cornelia
Mount of Newains N.J. in 1850.

For your information would say that the Peto's were all noted for their fine looks

Yours very truly

Mrs Margaret Peto Barthel