~~RECORDS~~

October 2, 1936.

Captain James Peto Chaplin,
Savannah, Georgia.

Dear Captain Chaplin;

Replying to yours of September 29, I am deeply sorry to have to say that it will be impossible for me to undertake any extended search for many weeks, for the reason that I am now engaged on some rather difficult English research which will require all of my time for a long time, also, I have now enough engagements to occupy me for the winter. I am very sorry.

I am wondering if this Chaplin line was originally our Chaplain family, who came first to Virginia very early, thence over into Maryland. I am rather familiar with this line though have not seen any connection with Chaplin data, but so often I find names of families who left Maryland even after the Rev. War whose names became changes, evidently spelled phonetically.

I have looked about for a suggestion, hoping, too, I might find some of the name over here. However, on page 337-338 of this handbook of American Genealogy there are quite a number of those living in various parts of S.C. who are listed as researchers.

And certainly this plan for the searches will be much less expensive than employing some one at such great distance as I am. While that is not an item to a great many, it is a fact that the same outlay will make the more complete record. If you do find a drift toward our Chaplain line I may later help somewhat up here.

Again, my regrets, and with best wishes for success, I am

Very sincerely yours,

I am wondering whether the MARTINANGELE family you want is not the same as the Martindale family? it is so easy for names to just grow different after a branch has left the original group, and grown up in a different environment; we find so much of this that I am suggesting correspondence with the compiler of the Martindale family because in his extended search he may know if they are from the same original stock.

Dear Sir,

Your letter of enquiry dated 13th September and addressed to Somerset House, has been handed to me.

I regret to say I am unable from your letter definitely to decide the particular line of research you wish to have made, and I would be much obliged if you would kindly advise me further in this matter.

Should you desire to have investigations made ~~in English records~~ with a view to obtaining such genealogical information as has already been registered in the records here of families of the name Chaplin, Peto, and Martinangele, these I should be pleased to have conducted on your behalf. The fee for such enquiries would be one pound in each case.

Yours truly,

Somerset Herald
and Registrar.

Dear Mr. Chaplin;

It is with real pleasure I express to you appreciation of this copy of your research on the Chaplin-Chaplain family, although I note, what appears to be, that only the family which came to Maryland has gained a letter in the name Chaplin.

I shall study it with real interest. If you wish to prove connection with this line it may be I can later send you some of our families; I do know that a descendant of Isaac Chaplin, Em. to Virginia, but running into the Chaplain line of Maryland, has been accepted by the President of the society, "First Families of Virginia". In the History of Western Maryland, by Searf Scharf, pp 1189-1190-1209-1206-1211, show quite a number of our lines.

They were very prominent in the Revolutionary War, and all were prominent citizens.

Perhaps I mentioned earlier that in the Compendium of American Genealogy; I really refer to the Handbook of genealogists, that Judge Max Kidder lists Mss., offers data on your line, which was compiled by the late Almon Kidder; address Monmouth, Illinois; also that Jennie Starke Mckee, Greensburg, Indiana, offers data. these are found p 200, K 16; and p 212, M 25; p 216, M 59, shows Rev. Harry Howard Mattindale, Box 162, Oxford, Indiana, who wants to correspond with families of this name "or allied families".

I mention this because I believe your Mattingele was earlier in the Martindale family; so often a change of location got lines mixed by improper spelling of clerks of the court.

These are merely suggestions. Again thanking you, I remain,

Very sincerely yours,

Bertha Hall Sabat

4th February, 1937.

Dear Sir,

Referring to our correspondence, the search you requested me to have made in the Records of the College of Arms has now been completed and I beg to report as follows.

No reference to your ancestor Isaac Chaplin who married Mary Calvert has been traced in the genealogical records of the College. It is apparent that in order to establish Isaac's ancestry, it will be necessary to make extensive research in original records, such as Parochial and Testamentary Registers, and these enquiries I should be pleased to conduct on your behalf. It is not possible at this stage to advise you of the exact cost of such research, but from my experience in such matters, I feel you would have to spend about £35. If you wish me to proceed, I would ask you kindly to let me have, say, £15 on account in order to meet the "out-of-pocket" expenses as incurred.

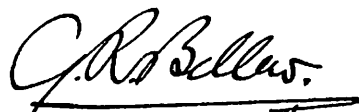

Reverting to the search in the Records of the College of Arms, the Grant of Arms for Chaplin mentioned in your previous letter as having been made in 1593 was, I find, made in 1592 to one John Capelen, or Chaplin of Stoneham in County Southampton. The Arms then assigned are as follows: "Ermine on a chief indented azure three griffins heads erased or".

4th February, 1937.

Later, in 1668 almost identical Arms, "Ermine on a chief indented vert three griffins heads erased or", were assigned to Francis Chaplyn of London, clothworker, who appears on a pedigree of the family of your name of Blankney and Tathwell, both of Lincoln, as "Sir Francis Chaplin, Knight, Lord Mayor of London, died 1680". According to this pedigree Sir Francis Chaplin's father was Robert Chaplin of Bury St. Edmunds, co. Suffolk, who married Elizabeth, daughter of Francis Asty.

If I can be of further service to you in this matter, please let me know.

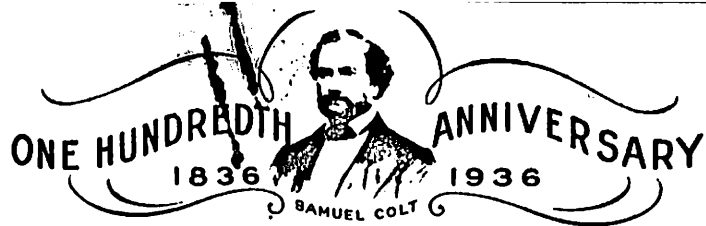

Yours truly,

Somerset Herald
and Registrar.

Dear Sir: - From my records, I cannot accurately place your John Chaplin b. July 1682, however I do believe he is of the Isaac Chaplin descent whom you mention. If you have not seen the book "Chaplins from Maryland and Virginia" by Maria J. Liggett Dale; I advise you to study it. The book is printed by the Franklin Print, Washington and it is in the Library of Congress. If you care to buy the book, I recall two years ago that Goodspeeds Bookshop in Boston Mass. had a few copies for sale at 10.00. Rather expensive, but the book is getting rare. I am descended from Isaac Chaplin, who came to Amer. 1610, then 3 gen. of Williams, Col. Joseph, son Jeremiah who married Elizabeth Nourse and have only that branch and Joseph's descendants.
