

Will of William Chaplin
of John's Island, S. C. Nov. 5, 1820.
Wife, Mary Chaplin, whose Father was Richard Freeman, & all property left to wife until children come of age. Then as they come of age each gets his share, except the plantation, which shall be wife Mary's home until her decease. Only child's name mentioned is William W. Chaplin. In the event all his children die without issue, then their portions go to two nephews, John & Joseph Trumbull.

Will of John Chaplin, Jr. of South Carolina, Charleston County & St Helena Parish Planter.
Feb. 27, 1776. Son John Chaplin given tract of land on Port Royal Island lying on James Creek.

my brother John Chaplin Executor.

Will of Sarah Chaplin of Island of St. Helena in Granville County, S. C. Oct. 31, 1764.
Give my daughter Ellina Chaplin, now the wife of Benjamin Chaplin. Ann Chaplin, daughter of Benj.
and Ellina ~~Chaplin~~. My daughter, Elizabeth Chaplin. Give and Youngers my side saddle
+ one cow + calf. My son Thomas Chaplin. Son William Chaplin tract of land on St.
Helena's Isl. - 300 acres. bounding on S. W. on lands of Caleb Tomer.
Daughter Sarah Chaplin.
Executors my loving brothers,
John Barnwell, John Chaplin, + son Benjamin Chaplin.

Should he die without heir, said tract of land given to Brother William Chaplin.
Wife Elioner (Cleonor?) Chaplin.
Trusty friends John Ellis Sr.
+ Thomas Chaplin + John Jenkins Executors of Will.

Will of Benjamin Chaplin, South Carolina, Granville County, St. Helena Parish.
Dec. 21, 1766. I, Benj. Chaplin of Port Royal Island Planter, bequeath to my son, Benjamin 250 acres land across this tract next to Col. Heywards land. Should he die with out heirs, give said 250 acres to my son William. Give my son John all the rest of my land. Wife, Elioner. Five children - John, Sarah, Ann, Benjamin + William. I appoint