

DEWITT-DUETT ROOTS AND SHOOTS

BY AVIS W. DEWITT

Hardbound, approximately 450 8"x11" pages, $35.00 postpaid.

Seven years, thousands of miles and hours of research have gone into the making of this family history. It tells the story of James Dewitt (DeWitt, Duett) of South Carolina and Virginia lineage who brought a wife and three sons to the Mississippi Territory in 1810. Their homes were to be found in Clarke and Wilcox Counties when the Alabama Territory was established. The sons were Joseph, James F. Junior and Lewis Lee Dewitt. These three sons had a total of twenty-six children that have been identified as surviving long enough to become an adult. These children and their descendants have been traced throughout the United States.

Other lines that have been researched to some extent include Morgan, Sheffield, Clark, Sellers, McLemore, Swain, Sandifer, Lee, Massey, Faircloth, Corbett, Norwood, Robertson, Dial, Boyd, McGowan, Bagley and Chelette (Schlette).
