Dear Robert,

In the 1977 Social List of Washington, D.C. (The Green Book) Mrs. Nicholas Longworth (Alice L. Roosevelt) is listed as residing at 2009 Massachusetts Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036. Miss Sturm is not listed with Mrs. Longworth, or separately. I hope you have success in making the contact, and getting a reply too.

Harold leaves tonight with a tour to London. Wednesday I am going to Los Angeles for a week visit with my sister whom I have not seen in seven years. Bunny and her husband are going to Venezuela this week to visit some girls that Bunny helped train when she was working as a chemist at the Food and Drug. They expect to be gone about ten days.

It is so good to hear from you and we are delighted your mother stays well and active. I know you all will enjoy your niece's wedding in December; that's something real nice to have to look forward to.

Our very best wishes to you and Miss Cora
And love,
May Day
