Dear Mr. Clark,

Your letter reached me here yesterday. I will probably have the above address for another month.

Am glad you had satisfactory result from the addresses I gave.

I have not discovered the relationship between Dr. Irvine and Nathaniel. If anyone knows, it might be an old man in Washington, D.C. (if he is still living)! He wrote several books on the Bullocks, Irvines, Stroops and others related to the Irvines. His books are in the Savannah

Library and may be in the Columbia. They are well worth seeing - the author's name is
Dr. Bullock - It will pay you to find them -

Sincerely, A. E. M.

Dear Mrs. Miller:

Your card of April 8, on which you mentioned Doctor Bulloch of Washington, D. C., was received several weeks ago. Many thanks for the information that Doctor Bulloch might know if Nathaniel Irwin and John Irvine, M. D., were related. Can you give me the initials and street address of Doctor Bulloch? Do you know the names and addresses of any of the descendants of Dr. John Irvine who have information pertaining to the family history? Perhaps some of them know if Nathaniel Irwin and Dr. John Irvine were related. Any information you can give me that may lead to finding if these two were, or were not, related will indeed be appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Tom Clark.
