

children.

---

EDWARD NIPSON FAIREY
BRANCHVILLE — Edward Nipson Fairey, 91, died Saturday at a Bamburg hospital.

The funeral will be 3:30 p.m. Monday at Ott Funeral Home. Burial will be in Ott Cemetery.

Mr. Fairey was born in Branchville, a son of the late Frank Asbury Fairey and Mrs. Julia Wade Fairey. He was previously married to the late Mrs. Annie Taylor Fairey. He was the oldest retired locomotive engineer on Southern Railroad and was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. He was a veteran of World War I and a member of the American Legion. He was a member of Branchville Christian Church.

Surviving are: his widow, Mrs. Faustine Davidson Fairey of Branchville; four daughters, Mrs. Arthur Godfery and Mrs. Rufus Rhoad, both of Branchville, Mrs. Herbert Thomas of Goldsboro, N.C., and Mrs. Billy Weaver of Sumter; 12 grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

---

B. B. ABERCROMBIE

on
si-
ay
e. e-
on
as
nn
ed
s.
g;
ell
W.
ss
ur
d-3,
d
y
n

Monday, 19-79 News & ...