Note: I copied Dan Matterson's notes as well as I could make them out. There may be some mistakes. C.T.G.

Information I would like to have.

What is the relationship between Benjamin Russell Bythewood and John Bythewood? How is Mrs. Schuder related to the Bythewoods?

I would also like to have any available dates.

Note ANN BLECK (6 16 Dec. 1768) daughter of James and Rachel (Adams) BLECK married 21 Dec. 1788, Thomas Bowman, Btch. She married 2nd. John Bythewood, Mrs. Jenkins' CEYK family was connected to the BOWMANS through the Adams in some way. * ANN FICKLING, dau. of Joseph and Eliza (Bowman) FICKLING, who married John Fripp was related to our Talbird family, we used to call her "Cousin Annie". After the death of Mr. William Johnson Verdier's wife Cousin ANNIE took ^{care} of the Verdier family. I can vaguely remember her, have never figured the relationship.

Note. As you see there were two "Joseph Porters". Mary Talbird who married a Joseph Porter was my grandfathers (FRANKLIN Talbird) aunt. Their daughter ANN married W^m. C. DANNER. The Chas. E. Danner I wrote you about was the son of William Porter Danner and Eliza Mary Johnson. Howard Danner who owns the store on Bay street was the son of Henry Talbird Danner and Mabel Ellis, Mrs. D. W. Rose, who lives on the road to Port Royal, was the daughter of Julia Danner who married Mr. M. O. D. White. The Porter lot in St. Helen's Church yard is near Col. Thos. Talbirds lot. Both Joseph Porters' evidently owned the same lot.

I have checked the Rhodes data you gave me re John and Thomas Rhodes and have not found any reference to Julia Rhodes. I would like to have the Rhodes family data, as soon as I find time I will make a copy of all I have and will send it to you, perhaps when you "find the time" you will kindly supply the missing links.
