at the moment I do not have time to answer

fully your informative letter. I do want to acknowledge that I received your informative letter. Thank you so much for your information on the Inman family. Enclosed is a deed abstract and plat showing that Euclidas Longshore lived adjacent to the property of JOHN INMAN in 1787.

From the book NEWBERRY Co SC MINUTES OF THE COUNTY COURT 1785-98
by Brent Holcomb

page 131 March Court 1790 "Thomas Wadlington having resigned serving as a constable and in his place UCLIDAS LONGSHORE is appointed."

page 135 June Court 1790 "ordered that a warrant of appraisement of the goods rights & credits of WILLIAM TURNER, dec'd be granted to the Ex'r directed to Henry Stidham, UCLIDAS LONGSHORE, JOSHUA INMANN & JEHU INMAN to appraise the same. Thomas W Waters Esquire to qualify the appraisers ooo."

page 224 May term 1794 "on motion of Samuel Miles ordered that UCLIDAS LONGSHORE be appointed overseer of the Main Road leading from Bush River up to The Beaver dam and that he command all the male laboures within two miles each side of said road to keep ooo"

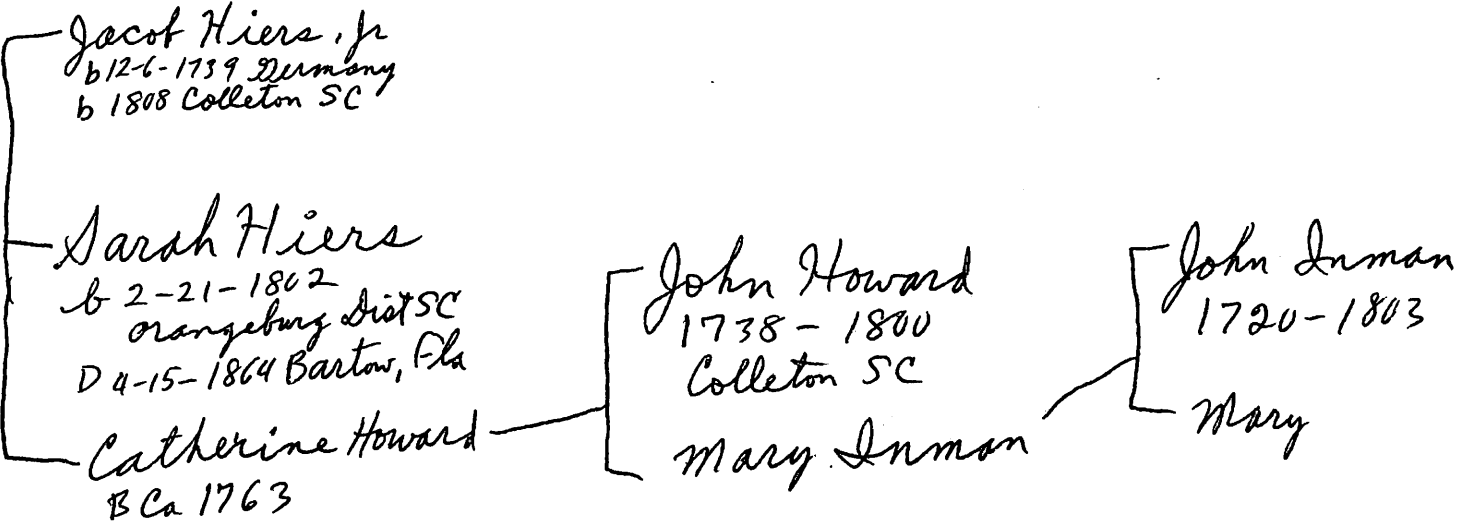

Holcomb's book has other items on the INMAN family.

I do NOT know why Euclidas Longshore was missed on the 1790 Census of Newberry Co., SC.

I am pleased to learn that you have some religious convictions. My parents were So. Baptists. When I was in high school my glee-club teacher was also choir director of the Episcopal Church (a mission church at Shawnee, Okla.) I was paid to sing tenor in the Church choir. It was emphasized to me that I was paid from a special choir fund and NOT from the Church treasury. The ritual was different from the Baptist Church, but I felt I gained much from the sermons. After the W. War II I joined the Christian Church (Discip. of Ch.), because I thought this doctrine was closer to that of the Bible. At present with women & homosexual preachers, we disagree.

When I get time I'll send you notes such as:

Sincerely
Kirby D. Watkins
