Wilson Green

QUEENS, N.Y. — Wilson Green, 90, of Queens died Monday, April 28.

He was born April 6, 1913, on Hilton Head Island to the late Ezekiel Green Sr. and Violet H. Green.

Mr. Green served as a U.S. Coast Guard longshoreman for several years and later as a New York state longshoreman from 1945 to 1970, when he retired.

He was a member of Mount Olivet Baptist Church in New York City. He also was a member of the Harmony Lodge No. 17, the Most Worshipful Oriental Grand Lodge and the Orient Chapter of the Eastern Star.

He volunteered with the Theodora Jackson Senior Citizen Center in Queens.

Survivors are his wife, Mabel Green; four daughters, Catherine "Kitty" Ward, Eileen Flowers, Eleanor Guy and Beverly Green; three brothers, Ezekiel "Toy" Green Jr. of Savannah and William Green Sr. and James Green Sr., both of Hilton Head; two sisters, Bette Greene and Louise "Hattie" Minis, both of Hilton Head; and nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Services will be held at 11 a.m. today at Mount Olivet Baptist Church in New York City.

The Paul Lane Funeral Home in Jamaica, N.Y., is in charge of arrangements.

2003.
