Dear Robert -

How - what a bombshell you did drop my way!! How on earth am I going to document this latest date?? I think I'll call Tom tonight and see if he'll get the new material for me. And if you can, tell me where I can find the documentation I need for Paul Grimball's wife, Mary Stone. I'll be forever grateful!! Am so anxious to finish up with this job and everytime I think

In a box to wind it up - BORN! - Something else develops. In everything I have found Paul Grimball was married three times at least - 1st wife unknown by whom he had two children: Ann and Paul - then Mary Barnwell was his second wife by whom he had Mary, Catharine, and Elizabeth and his third wife was Mary Stone - whom you say should be Mary Stone. What are his children's names by each wife? I can believe Mary Stone was 3rd wife and our ancestress thru Joseph Lawton but I still believe I'm descended from Paul II and Mary Barnwell thru their daughter Elizabeth because of other records that bear this out - including three Barnwell books or accounts. If Mary Barnwell was his first wife and Mary Stone his second does this mean there were just two wives? Two daus Ann by Mary Barnwell??

Now I'm confused concerning the two Susannah Carriers - mother and daughter. You wrote that John Carrier mentions dau. Susannah Stone in his will & John Stone was executor alongside his wife Susannah. "Aftn 1723 death of John Carrier his widow Susannah m. Nathurin Boigard who also mentions wife Susannah and daughter-in-law Susannah, wife of John Stone" in his will. Then you went on to say that Susannah Carrier Stone Boigard m. Thomas Hinborn and had daughter Susannah Hinborn. "Dit you mean that Susannah Carrier Stone (Mary Stone's chater - not her grandmother - named Thomas Hinborn?? Please straighten me out as to which Susannah married the Hinborn. Is this where the Hinborn Lawton comes from? It does get confusing at times to say the least. Well, St. Historical magazine needs this state to correct in their published Grimball and Sans genealogies which I have. And all the Lawton publications need it, too. Sounds like a lot of the information in these genealogies was not properly documented.!! What a mess to straighten out -

Thanks so much for Reunion date and location and for information concerning the Edings of Edisto Island book. Will write Mr. Inabinet right away - You forgot to tell me whether or not you have Martha Sarah Chaplin in your genealogy. Please let me know if what I have is correct.
Will be interested in obtaining the Lawton family date. Will it be in the next Transactions? Think eventually I'll get the newer edition of Our Family Circle - saw it in our library last week.
Do you know if there's one in the State Library in Raleigh? Deep so - but it struck Paul Grimball I married Cheryl Storey and Paul H. M.
Cheryl Stone? ^{Chore confusion!!} Thanks again for everything!! Don't know what I'd do without you!! Love to you in Carol - Devotedly, Camille
