

DANIEL JAUDON, born c. 1683 on the Isle de Re~~y~~, Bay of Biscay, France, son of Elie (Elias) and Sara (Bertonneau) Jaudon, accompanied his mother and her second husband, Pierre Michaud, to South Carolina in 1686, being listed among the French and Swiss refugees who petitioned for naturalization in 1696. He witnessed the Dec. 1703 will of Daniel LeGendre of Craven County and the 18 March 1720 will of George Logan, Esq. of Berkeley County. Daniel Jaudon had a warrant for 50 acres in Craven County 5 June 1710. On 25 Jan. 1731 both he and his eldest son, Daniel Jaudon, Jr., witnessed the will of Francis Pagett, Berkeley County planter. Daniel Jaudon married c. 1708 Elizabeth, surname not now known, who made her will 12 April 1743, being "of the Parish of Prince George, Winyah, Craven County, widow", in which she directs her Executor to "sell all my land I possess", dividing the proceeds among her three youngest children: Paul, David and Elisha Jaudon. On 19 Feb. 1731 Daniel Jaudon sold for £700 to Stephen Miller, Charleston shopkeeper, 500 acres bounding west on Cooper River and south on Murrells Creek. The births of the first eight children of Daniel and Elizabeth Jaudon are recorded in the Register of the Parish of St. Thomas and St. Denis; the three youngest children are mentioned in their mother's will, suggesting that the family may have moved back to Craven County after 1724. Est. Inv. 10 Apr. 1739

Wid. of granville Co. 3 Sept 1764 when he deeded to his son, John Robert, six tracts of land in the Parish of St. James, Santee, their former home; NEAR YEMASSE S.C.

Rue, born S.C. 1758, died at Savannah, Ga. 18 May 1815. Elias Robert, planter and surveyor, had grants for 150 acres on Davis Branch, Salkehatchie Swamp, Granville Co. 14 June 1771, for 500 acres on Black Swamp, St. Peter's Parish 2 April 1773 and for 150 acres on Cypress Creek, St. Peter's Parish 10 Feb. 1775. He apparently donated the property for Black Swamp Baptist Church, now the site of the Robert Cemetery some $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles northeast of present Robertville, when it was organized in Feb. 1786 and was its first messenger to the Charleston Association. He was dismissed to the Savannah church in 1800 and died in Scriven County, Ga. in 1820. Family records say he was a charming and beautifully educated but rather "ineffective" man; the 1790 Census shows him planting with only three slaves in Robertville where his five children were born. (THSSC 78 pp.136-137.)

13. 5. Elizabeth Robert, born 1750 at French Santee.

14. 6. Sarah Robert, born 6 February 1755 at French Santee.
