

in 1857 with her uncle, Benjamin Jaudon (1795-1870). Their two known children:

- a. Ida Root, born 1856 in Lawtonville, died 1857 in Kansas City.
- b. William C. Root, born c.1859 in Kansas City.

Professor Chester M. Root was teaching music in Kansas City, Mo. in 1860,<sup>95</sup> (17) in charge of vocal music at the Young Ladies Seminary founded by the Rev. John H. Luther.

William Jaudon married (2) c.1833 Susan Porter in Robertville where all their children were born. Susan (Porter) Jaudon, born c.1810, died 19 May 1859 in Savannah, Ga. while visiting their daughter, Emma (Jaudon) Askew,<sup>96</sup> (18) after which William Jaudon left his two youngest children in the Askew household and moved to Jacksonville, Fla. to live with his eldest daughter, Caroline (Jaudon) Flinn.<sup>97</sup> (19) In Jacksonville where he was employed as a clerk, he married (3) 18 Nov. 1860 Rebecca Winter who was born in S.C. in 1815.<sup>98</sup> (20) In 1870 William and Rebecca (Winter) Jaudon were in Screven Co., Ga. with his daughter, Frances (Jaudon) Taylor, and in 1880 were living with his son, J. Wheeler Jaudon.<sup>99</sup> (21) William Jaudon died 18 Nov. 1887 in Savannah, Ga. and was buried in Laurel Grove Cemetery.