

Albertha Jones

Albertha Jones, 91, of Hilton Head Island died Friday, June 2, 2006, in her home.

She was born Nov. 3, 1918, on Pinckney Island, the daughter of the late Josephina Isabella Seabrook and the late Peter Cuba Jones.

She was raised on St. Helena Island and Hilton Head Island and educated in Beaufort County schools.

As a young girl, she joined Mt. Calvary Missionary Baptist Church. She later became a member of the Hilton Head New Church of Christ, where she sang in the choir and was an ordained missionary. She worked for many years for the Sea Pines Plantation Co., retiring in the early 1970s.

She was preceded in death by a grandson, Duglis Jones.

She is survived by a daughter, Ruby Williams Jones; a son, Jerry Green; a son-in-law, David Jones, all of Hilton Head; a sister, Evelena Chisolm of Savannah; four grandchildren, Edra D. Stephens and David Jones Jr., both of Hilton Head Island, Anthony Gay of Philadelphia, and Jamie Green of Columbia; two great-grandchildren, Doulgas Jones-Stephens and Skyla Edison Stephens, both of Hilton Head Island; and other relatives.

The funeral will be at 1 p.m. Wednesday at Hilton Head New Church of Christ. Burial will follow in Talbird Cemetery. Wake services will be from 7 to 8 p.m. today in the sanctuary of the Hilton Head New Church of Christ.

Marshel's Wright-Donaldson Home For Funerals is in charge of the arrangements.
