

"Bob" of Smyre: say you that: You may keep this letter hope to send & better copy later

The Georgia

Georgia Telegraph

The Georgia Telegraph

"CHARACTER IS AS NECESSARY TO A STATE AS TO A PRIVATE INDIVIDUAL, AND THE GLORY OF A STATE IS THE COMMON PROPERTY OF ALL ITS CITIZENS."

BY SAM'L J. RAY & THOS. L. ROSS.

MACON, GA., TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 4, 1851.

The Georgia Telegraph

PUBLISHED
EVERY TUESDAY MORNING

BY RAY & ROSS.

No other discount will, except at the option of the Advertisers, or all the time during the year.

Advertisers at the regular charge, will be 100 per square of six lines or less, for the first insertion, and 50 per cent for each subsequent insertion.
Advertisers not specified as to time, will be published each Friday and charged accordingly.

Advertisers continuing without liberal time, it being expressly understood that all subsequent insertions of advertisements, relate only to their immediate advertisements.

Advertisers encasing their dues will be allowed a discount.

Letters of business, must be post paid, to ensure insertion.

Advertisers, who desire to do so,
may have their names printed on the head of their advertisements.

Advertisers, who desire to do so,
may have their names printed on the
head of their advertisements.

The name of the advertiser, having taken the above name appearing on the enclosed add.

E.H. Peeples, Esq Lawtonville, S.C. other names A.B.Lawton Oglethorpe Ga, Wm S. Lawton (my grandfather) Macon Ga

Lawton, Dowell & Co. Savannah Ga A.B.Lawton & Co Oglethorpe Ga Sam'l L. Dowell, Samuel J. Ray Macon Ga Judge B.F. Porter

Charleston, S.C., T.W. Willingham Esq Lawtonville Col W.L.Lawton Serven county Ga W.A.Cunning Esq Coveta Ga Gov C.W. McDonald, Marietta Ga

Notice.

FIELD & ADAMS'

FIRE PROOF WARE HOUSES—CLOTHING,

The undersigned proprietors the above
Warehouse and Clothing Company, respectfully inform the community we will furnish any necessary building, originally occupied by the Bank Field, and the possession by us. The erection of nearly, perhaps will be put in hand before the date of opening shall be running under roof, to make and complete it one of the most popular Hotels in the South.

The Collector Department is under the special charge MRS JAMES, formerly of Philadelphia, and widely known to the travelling community, who will see that, without exception, to make the interior Images, & facilities entirely fit for use. The apartments having been newly and handsomely furnished.

JOHN M. FIELD,

A. B. DOWELL,

MACON, AUGUST 5, 1851.

A. B. LAWTON & CO.

WARE-HOUSE AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

OGLETHORPE, GA.

W.M. S. LAWTON & CO.

WARE-HOUSE AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

CORNERS OF SECOND AND PINE-LAND STREETS,

MACON, GA.

LAWTON, DOWELL & CO.

FACTORS AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

NO. 10 PINE STREET,

SAVANNAH, GA.

A. B. LAWTON, Esq. & Company.

Tender their services to the community and the public, having long and experience in business, to be able to give satisfaction.

They have leave to refer to Revd J. Ray, Steven Ga, Judge R. F. Porter, Charleston, C. T. Willingham, and L. H. Peeples, Esq. Savannah, S.C.
Col W. J. Lawton, Secretary, City Co., A. Com-
ming, Esq., Coosa county, Ga, N. Bowles, Esq.
Harris, Ga, Gov. C.J. Harwood, Macon, Ga.

July 18.

W. M. S. LAWTON.

MACON, AUGUST 5, 1851.

W. M. S. LAWTON.

MACON, AUGUST 5