- 53 - Charlotte Esther Lawton

Born 2 Nov 1813 at Lawtonville, daughter of Benjamin T. D. and Jane (Horse) Lawton, attended Lawtonville Academy and married there 1830 Edward Harker Peoples (9 Oct 1811 - 24 Nov 1892), son of Jesse Peoples (1786-1813), planter of Prince William Parish, and his wife Gertrude Elizabeth McKay (1788-1860), daughter of Revolutionary War Captain Henry McKay and his wife Esther Lynn. After the 1813 death of Jesse Peoples in a hunting accident, his widow married (2) 29 June 1815 Nathan Johnston (1793-1869), planter of Mexico Plantation, St. Peter's Parish. "Captain Neddie" and Charlotte (Lawton) Peoples were faithful members of Lawtonville Baptist Church where he served as deacon 1846-1892. Their home, 53 north of Lawtonville on the Orangeburg Road, was said by Rev. Hamilton Dooling to have been the finest in the neighborhood until burned by Union troops in 1865. [Captain Ned gave each of their daughters a 500-acre plantation for a wedding present.] Dr. Chalmers Davidson names him one of the 400 largest planters and slaveholders in S.C. in 1860. Ruined financially by the Confederate War in which he served as Captain of the Lawtonville Home Guards, his recovery was rapid. He served as Justice of the Peace and Commissioner of the Free Schools, donating property for the latter. "Captain Neddie" stood 5 ft. 4 in. tall, seldom weighing more than a hundred pounds.

Charlotte's Father (Lawton) Peoples died 16 Aug 1886 at Glen Springs, S.C. where she sought ^{to recover her} ~~her~~ health. Her widower married (?) her sister, Mary Elizabeth (Lawton) Matthews (1823-1906), widow of Dr. Theodore dehon Matthews.
