Miss Fannie Hasel, (sister of Mrs. Holmes) presented These old receipts were given to Mrs. Judson Lawton and her daughter Miss Florence I. Lawton, to verify the price of long staple cotton at that time, as the Reynolds heirs were trying to collect the stolen cotton, but they of course did not have the needed Ware House Receipts so they never did receive anything.

We are glad that the sale of cotton met your approbation.
 The accounts you wish settled are paid up to the last ~~month~~ to which you have enclosed, we had not yet debited the cotton, nor had we made out the sale.

We have had it very hot indeed and indeed continues so still for cotton, he had a man & beast.

Truly Y^{rs} fdr.

Legare & Co. Clerk.

Joseph H. Hayes.

Dr. Sir,

We shall certainly hold you for--too fast? and are not sorry that you have concluded to do so: we only wish that all our friends would pursue the same course & we think the purchasers would come to this sense -

We have in accordance with our promise carried the book to your credit & now that Mr. Ingersoll is home must leave him to make his own arrangements & pledges. The act current you will receive.

Our market is very dull & the buyers are offering may they be success-ful in getting good by & such Cottons at 35 to 36.
When they will turn in our favour we cannot say.

Truly Yours
Legan & Co. Clerk
