

Old Cousin William M. Barton of Charleston S.C. told my father Judge Barton that a Barton in England was appointed to toll the bell for Prince Albert, husband of Queen Victoria & he considered it a great honor bestowed on him. William M.
Barton was told that in England when he went over there on a visit with his wife, he held some position for the "Grange" a farmers protective association.
He was paid $5,000 per year, he held this position for 25 yrs. over in England.

Col. G. J. Colcock stepped on train at Grahamville and met Pres.
Jeff Davis, Pres. Davis stepped out on platform and Col. Colcock introduced the Pres. to his regiment 3rd South Carolina Cavalry
"Fellow soldiers of the 3rd South Carolina Cavalry let me introduce you to your illustrious President." This was Col. Colcock's introduction to his Cavalry. The President then doffed his hat made a bow & then the train pulled out this was ^{on} Charleston & Sea B. R. this was in '63 or '64.

meaning of Coat - of Arms (Hebster)
The ensigns armorial of a family; consisting of marks of dignity and distinction, descending from father to son.