NOTES TO CENSUS OF 1860

At each ten year interval, the amount of information requested increased. In the 1860 enumeration, the first column (A) lists "Dwelling houses numbered in the order of visitation". The next column (B) lists "Families numbered in the order of visitation". Columns 1-8 ask for the same information as the 1850 census. The new columns added to the 1860 census required the enumerator to check if applicable. They are as follows:

- 9 Married within the year.
- 10 Attended school within the year.
- 11 Persons over 20 years who cannot read or write
- 12 Whether deaf and dumb, blind, insane, idiotic, pauper, or convict.

Also added was the name of the post office where the households received their mail. This is a great help in locating the area in which the family resided.

As with most censuses, we had the usual difficulty reading the copies of the original census pages. This necessitated our using blanks, question marks, etc. Also, in this census, the enumerator omitted all reference to households numbered 281 & 282.

Regarding "Schedule 2 - Slave Inhabitants", some persons listed as slave owners are not included in the general census. The reasons for this are unknown. Possibly, some of them were deceased and the enumerator didn't list them as "Estate of" or it could be that the owner's main place of residence was out of St. Luke's Parish but he/she had property & slaves inside the Parish. Also, there seem to be some conflicts with the general census as to the correct initials &/or names. Two different names listed may actually be the same person.

Also, our Schedule of Slave Inhabitants includes all information as recorded except the ages of slaves. This is because of space restrictions (over 7100 slaves listed). Also, because no names of slaves were entered, the ages have little relevance for the users of this census compilation.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

CENSUS OF 1870

Two census enumerators did the 1870 census: S. B. Wright (pages 1-83) and C. W. Moir (pages 84-145). The heading on the original census pages stated the area covered was "St. Luke's Parish". Technically, it should have read "Bluffton Township" because of federal changes made in 1865 (see main introduction to this compilation). Also, this census included Hilton Head and Daufuskie Islands which were no longer in this parish/township.

Errors and omissions in this census compilation can be expected to be caused by census enumerator error and/or due to inability to read the copies of the original census records. These errors occur in both the names and in the numbers. Names were spelled here as they were spelled by the enumerator. When the spelling or numbering was in doubt, a question mark was used.

The index includes only heads of households and persons living in the household who had different surnames.

For information on abbreviations used in this census, see the "COLUMN HEADINGS" page.

THE BOUNDARIES OF ST. LUKE'S PARISH BEAUFORT COUNTY SOUTH CAROLINA

St. Luke's Parish was formed in 1767 from a part of St. Helena's Parish and was often referred to as "The Indian Lands".

At that time a parish in South Carolina had both an ecclesiastical and civil status and duly elected parish officials served in the South Carolina House of Representatives.

But in 1865, at the end of the War between the States, the civil boundaries of the parishes were declared invalid by the federal government and new civil districts were drawn in order to change the representation in the House of Representatives.

The new area became Bluffton Township. This area included all land in the present Beaufort County south and west of the Broad River, except Hilton Head and Daufuskie Islands. Also, what was locally known as Beaufort District officially became Beaufort County, even though the official printed forms used enumerators from 1800-1860 use "county".
