

Enc. 1.

THE LAWTON FAMILY OF SOUTH CAROLINA

First Three Generations
Compiled by the Rev. Fr. Robert E. H. Peeples

IMMIGRANT: Capt. WILLIAM LAWTON, Planter, St. John's Parish, Edisto Is. Colleton County, died 9-15 Oct. 1757; married (1) MARY, dau. of Jeremiah Clarke, 4 children; Josiah (died unmarried), Wm., Jr. (died unmarried 1758), Sarah (born 1739, died 21 October 1798) married John Seabrook & left descendents, Jeremiah (died unmarried before 20 May 1762); (2) c. 1743-4th dau. of Thomas Winborn, Planter, Wadmalaw Is., St. John's Parish, 2 children: Winborn (born Edisto Is. 1745, died James Is. Sept. 22, 1809) married Mrs. Mary Mathews (22 Aug. 1749 - 10 Feb. 1839, dau. of Jonathan Frampton) 3 children: Winborn, Jr. (1782-24 Mar. 1861), Beulah (married 29 Jan. 1801 John Hughes) & William, and Mary (died unmarried); (3) Mrs. MARY SAMS widow of Paul Grimball & dau. of William Sams (c. 1685 c. 1738) & Susannah Harrison. William Sams was son of Bonham (Bonum) Sams (baptized 2 Feb. 1663 No. Petherton Parish, Somerset, England, arrived S.C. 1691, son of Thomas & Mary Bagge Sam) & his 1st wife, Enettis Blake. William & Mary Stone Lawton had one child, Joseph (see below) & after William's death Mary married Samuel Fickling, moved from Edisto Is. to Prince William's Parish, Granville County & died in ~~1804~~ Oct/Nov. 1805.

(1720-1803) Stone,
John Stone

JOSEPH LAWTON (born Edisto Is. 18 Oct. 1753, died Mulberry Grove Plantation, Black Swamp, near Robertville, S. C. 5 Mar. 1815) on 18 Mar. 1773 married SARAH ROBERT (born 6 Feb. 1755 St. James Parish, Santee; died at Transpine Plantation 6 Oct. 1839, dau. of Jacques & Sarah Jaudon Robert, whose father, Pierre Robert Jr. fled from Basle, Switzerland to S. C. in 1686 with his father, Rev. Pierre Robert, French Huguenot Minister); their eleven children were all born at Mulberry Grove Plantation:

1. WILLIAM HENRY LAWTON (born 23 Feb. 1775, died 1 Nov. 1827) married 31 Oct. 1797 Catherino Maner, dau. of Capt. William & Jane Aseneth May Maner; seven children.
2. JOSEPH J. LAWTON (born 19 Aug. 1777, died 1859) married Phoobe (born 6 Dec. 1781) dau. of Dr. George Mosse (born Ireland 1742, died Black Swamp, Robertville 17 Feb. 1808) & Dorothy Phoobe Norton (born St.