

Sixth Circuit Court of the United States
District of Georgia

Armstrong, Church
Ex. - Compt
and Huy et al. vs. W. J. W.

The answer of Henry W. W.
Filed Dec. 22 1874
Geo. W. W.

Buyer

Sixth Circuit Court

United States

District of Georgia

Re: ~~Henry~~

John A. ...

and
J. G. ... et al deft.

In Equ

The answer of Henry ...

These defendants having and receiving benefit and a share of the estate in the said Bill contained for answer they say that they admit that the said William Jones died leaving step wife as is mentioned in the said Bill and that they have no doubt that the said matter in the said Bill contained as regards the qualification of the said Executors and the amount in the hands of the said surviving Executor are true and these defendants say that they know nothing of the said Bill of Henry that their mother ~~that~~ Mary Catharine Mc Nish formerly ~~her~~ was for many years before, and also at the time of her decease resident in the State of South Carolina Bouquien to John Clauville, And their defendants further say that they together with their Sister Mary Catharine were the only children of Mary C. Mc Nish - who was the niece of the said Henrietta B. and are entitled to receive a portion the funds in the hands of the said Com-placant, and of the proceeds of the Bond of the said Jacob Woodbury, a which matter and thing they are ready to aver and prove, and they pray the Court may direct ~~and~~ they pray to hence dismissed with their reasonable costs & charges of

Richd Reigler Solr for of Levenish de

You Henry Menick ~~and John~~ do know that what is contained in the first answer, so far as relates to your own is true of your own knowledge and what relates to the acts of others you believe to be true.

Done to be signed
1. Dec. 1824. James Dewey.
Dyflak. s. c. d. Henry M. N.

That Deft's sister Mary Catharine married with Joseph A. Scott, and died sometime about the month of February — Eighteen hundred and 1817 — leaving her husband Joseph A. Scott, and leaving issue Mary, Josephine, Edwin, Andrew Jackson, a child of 4 months infants under the age of twenty one year, her surviving — and the said Joseph A. Scott and his children above mentioned are resident at May River in the District of Beaufort in the State of South Carolina —

