The Lady's Book,

CONTAINING Tales, original and selected, moral and scientific essays, Poetry from the best authors, the quarterly representation of fashions adopted in Philadelphia, colored, Music of the newest style, &c. Published monthly, and embellished with a beautiful and extensive variety of engravings, from original and selected designs, both colored and plain, with two engraved title pages and two distinct indexes, intended to perfect separate volumes in the year. Also, a choice collection of Music, original and selected, arranged for the Piano or Guitar with upwards of 70 pages, large octavo letter press, and only three dollars per annum. The publishers in the short space of one year, have expended in embellishment alone, to beautify the work, upwards of $1,000, and the most extensive and costly arrangements have been made for the necessary numbers, which is warranted by the general celebrity and and unrivalled patronage which has been obtained for the work. Subscriptions received and numbers delivered by E. THAYER, Agent;

Family Library, No. 23.

VIEW OF ANCIENT AND MODERN EGYPT, with an Outline of the Natural History. By the Rev. Michael Russell, L. L. D. Illustrated by a Map and Engravings, representing the most remarkable Temples—Pyramids—and other monuments of Antiquity, forming No. XXIII. of "Harper's Family Library."

"The author of the volume before us, fully appreciating the resources of interest which his subject afforded, has given us a narrative combining varied and attractive information."—New-York Review.

"The great success of the preceding volumes of the Family Library led us to expect much information as well as amusement from this; nor have we been disappointed."—Boston Statesman.

"We like to see a respectable name attached to works that cope with facts, and Dr. Russell's is a pledge satisfactory to the scholar. He has supplied an exceedingly interesting work, collecting his material directly, and arranging them with judicious care."—Hagerstown's Mag.

"An exceedingly interesting volume, well compiled from every source of tangible, ancient and modern, and condensed into a reasonable and portable compass. The most interesting of home works."

JOURNAL of a Naturalist with Plates.
Plants, trees and stones we meet,
Birds, insects, beasts and rural things.

"We can most strongly recommend this little unpretending volume to the attention of every lover of nature, and more particularly of our country readers. It is a book that ought to find its way into every rural drawing room in the kingdom, and one that may be safely placed in every boudoir, be her rank and station in life what it may."

Also, a new supply of the Cabinet Library, being the Marquis of Londonderry's first narrative of the late war in Germany and France, "the only correct and well authenticated account we have of the spirit-stirring scenes which preceded the fall of Napoleon. The work deserves a place in every Historical Library." Just received and for sale by

Revised edition of the Waverly

NOVELS.

SAMUEL H. PARKER of Boston, has commenced the republication of the Waverly Novels, from the best revised editions by the author, which Novels is to be completed in two volumes, with an engraved frontispiece, illustrative of some subject in the work, to which they are attached. We have seen the two first volumes; they are elegantly executed, as it regards paper and type; and the frontispieces are appropriate and handsome. These works will be furnished to subscribers, in cloth binding, at the extremely low price of 75 cents a volume. This is the cheapest work, considering the fine style in which the volumes are brought out, that we recollect to have seen. We have met with very few publications from the American press, the execution of which surpasses it.—N. Y. Advertiser.
