

Clan Chattan (chief's title: Great Servant of St. Catan)

1. Gilliechattan Mor O'qualave, first named chief of Clan Chattan
Bailie of the Abbey of Kilchattan in Bute
2. Diarmid (or Dormund) succeeded c. 1093
3. Gillicattan II
Murdoch (or Murdoch)
4. Mac Gilliechattan Clearach, Celtic Prior of Kingussie (Abbot) until 1153 when his elder brother, Diarmid, Chief of Clan Chattan d. Sp.; he secured a dispensation from the pope and married a daughter of the Thane of Cawdor (Caldor); with others he had:
5. Gillichattan Patrick, 5th chief whose son:
Dougal Dall left an only daughter, Eva who married in 1291
Angus Mackintosh, 6th chief of Clan Mackintosh, who became 7th chief of Clan Chattan. McIntosh's continued chiefs of Clan Chattan.
MacPherson
- 5(a) Ewan Ban (the "fair complexioned"), first called "Mac Pherson."
(son of the parson)
6. Kenneth MacPherson, Parson of Kingussie, temp. Alex. III
m. Isabel, dau. of Ferguard Mackintosh of Mackintosh; 2 sons:
 1. Duncan, the heir
 2. Ben (Benjamin) ancestor of MacPherson of Brin
7. Duncan McPherson of Cluny, Chief of Clan MacPherson succeeded in 1438
8. Donald Phial MacPherson of Cluny
9. Donald Mor (Moir) McPherson of Cluny m. dau. of McIntosh of Lochaber
10. Donald Big McP. of Cluny m. dau. of Gordon of Buckie
11. Ewan (Eugene) McP. of Cluny
12. Dormund, charter 6 Feb. 1509; 13. Ewan McP. m. dau. of McIntosh of Stone
14. John McPherson of Cluny, fought at Glenlivet 1594; m. a daughter died c. 1610
of Gordon of Archarassie; his heir:
13. John McPherson of Cluny had charter 1613 of lands of Tullich and Elrick, Invernesshire; heir:
+1660
16. Ewan (Evan) MacPherson of Cluny, had charter of same lands in 1623
m. 1641 Anna, dau. of Duncan Forbes of Culloden