INTRODUCTION

"In as much as some have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of these things which are most surely believed among us, even as they are delivered unto us from the beginning by the recorded Wills of The Mikells, and other infallible proofs. It seemed good to me also to write unto you, of succeeding generations, that thou mightest know the certainty of these things wherein thou hast been instructed."

Then, when the Present becomes the Past, and these fast mouldering Wills become dust and ashes, the question will arise: And who are you, and how, and where have you got your Gospel?

My answer to the first query is, that I bear the surname of my mother and father; was born in the old Townsend Homestead, Bleak Hall, Edisto Island, So. Ca., November 12, 1840. My mother was Miss Amirintha Jenkins Townsend, who was the daughter of Daniel Townsend, who was the son of Andrew Townsend, whose lineage goes back to Sir Ladovie de Townsend, in the reign of William The Conqueror. My father was Isaac Jenkins Mikell, see Generation 6. I was baptized, as an infant, in the Edisto Island Presbyterian Church, March 28, 1841. Became a communicant March 3, 1867. Was installed the first Deacon, of said church, April 6, 1873; an Elder, December 8,

THE MIKELL FAMILY

"Not long after this period (1682) Lord Cardross, a nobleman from the north of England, came over to Carolina, bringing with him a Colony of North Britons, who were chiefly Baptists, and settled at Port Royal Island. But the neighboring Indians and more particularly the Spanish settlement at St. Augustine proving hostile, soon obliged them to remove to a place more secure, and before 1686 we find them settled at the mouth of the Edisto River (Hewit, Vol. 1, 89 and see also appendix to Gov. Archdale's description of the Colony, p. 4). The Baptist part of this Colony, among whose names, Morgan Edwards has preserved, those of William Trie (Pastor), Thomas Grimball, Providence Grimball, Ephraim Mikell, Joseph Sealey, Joseph Parmenter, Isaac Parmenter, Thomas Parmenter and William Tilly, attached themselves to Mr. Screven's church, still worshipping at Somerton. Page 19. The Baptists and their descendants who had settled on Edisto, still members of the Charleston Church, had become considerably increased through the labors of Mr. Trie, Mr. Screven and his successors; and before 1722 had joined with other inhabitants of the island in building a meeting house for their common use. About the same time or a little before, Mr. William Tilly, one of the brethren, a native of Salesbury, Eng., appearing to be endowed with appropriate gifts and graces, was called to the ministry by the Charleston Church, and after a suitable probation was ordained in Charleston. His residence being on Edisto, his labors were chiefly bestowed there and much to the satisfaction of Christians. But in 1722 the Baptists were ejected from the common meeting house, to which the Rev. Mr. Archibald Stobo and those who acted with him, laid exclusive claim. They were, therefore, compelled to worship in private until 1726, when they built a meeting house for themselves (it was standing in 1772)

1878. Have been President of the Corporation of the Edisto Island Presbyterian Church for the past twenty-one years.

I was the first student to leave The University of Virginia to take up arms in support of what we believed to be our rights under the Constitution of the U. S.

Was made prisoner of war April 8, 1863, see "Rebellion Record," Washington, D. C. Raised and became Capt. of The Edisto Mounted Riflemen, see Adj. Gen. of S. C. Report, 1879-80. On March 8, 1866, I persuaded a young lady to take her grandmother's full maiden name by becoming my wife, see Record. I am now (1910) in my 70th year, in full health, on the old tramping ground of my forefathers. Having answered the first query, I shall answer the second by saying That the first, or historical part of the record, was written by Lieut. T. Waring Mikell, see Genealogy, 7th Gen.

The Genealogical part of it is taken from the Wills of the Mikells in the probate office, many of which are fast disintegrating, from age; also from church parish registers and tombstones; when found, using only facts and rejecting everything that is legendary, that is not established on facts. The researches were made by the indomitable, uncompromising searcher after truth, and efficient editor of The South Carolina Historical and Genealogical Magazine, Miss Mabel L. Webber, to whom I feel greatly indebted. Then the whole was referred to Washington A. Clark, Esq., see Record, to be examined legally and to reject all that a Court of Law on evidence could throw out.

Those belonging to the different generations have the number of these generations over their names, and the letter represents their family in that generation.

Females descending from Ephriam Mikell, of the 2nd generation, Capt. in the Expedition St. Augustine, d. 1743, are eligible to become Colonial Dames.

Ephriam Mikell of the 4th generation, b. 1741, d. 1809 (son of John Mikell, b. 1718, d. 1765), was Justice of the Peace, 1774-75.

His descendants are entitled to be Sons and Daughters of The American Revolution. May we all of each generation be worthy Sons and Daughters of our worthy Sires.

TOWNSEND MIKELL.

on a lot of two acres, the gift of Mr. Ephraim Mikell, who was one of the members and a pious, excellent man. (Humphrey's, p. 108.) The members there, who were then a considerable number, soon set about providing permanently for the support of the Baptist preaching on the Island.

They purchased of Matthew Crees a tract of land for a glebe, adjoining the two acres given by Mr. Ephraim Mikell, for the sum of £340. (The trustees then being Charles Idingsell, Jos. Sealy, Sr., Ephraim Mikell, Paul Grimball, Jos. Sealy, Jr., Jno. Wells, William Elliott, Sr., Jno. Sheppard and Samuel Screven, to hold the property for the support of an Antepordo Baptist Minister on that Island forever.) Mr. Jos. Sealy also gave a fund of £1,000 for the same object, but many of the members soon moved away, some to Port Royal Island and some to Euhaw; those on Port Royal soon joined their brethren at Euhaw, where they maintained worship as well as they could after the death of Mr. Tilly; the survivors on Edisto also went to Euhaw and left the Baptist name almost extinct on Edisto for more than half a century."

Ephraim Mikell of Port Royal, Granville Parish, Province of S. C., in his will of Sept. 2, 1743, also devised £100 to "the Baptist Meeting on Edisto Island."

(Extracts gathered by my father, Thos. Waring Mikell, from "Historical Sketch of the Baptist Church of S. C." by Rev. Dr. Basil Manly, in 1832, p. 12. In possession of Thos. P. Smith, Charleston, S. C.)

MIKELL.

FIRST GENERATION—

The first of the family found in South Carolina was Ephraim Mikell; the name is spelled in the older records, Mikel, Mickel, Michell, but the form most used is Mikell.

The name of Michel will be found in two places on the map dated 1715, in the first volume of the history of South Carolina by General McCrady, one on North Edisto River and one on South Edisto; and Ephraim Mikell was appointed tax collector for Edisto Island in 1715. (St. at large, Vol. 6), this shows them to have been established on Edisto Island for some time.

EPHRAIM MIKELL, SR., died Feb. 15, 1728-9. (Probt. Court Book 1729-31, p. 135). His will, dated Feb. 12, 1728-9, and proved May 3, 1729 (1727-29, p. 320), leaves his property as follows:

"Son Ephraim Mikell £5.

"Grand-son Jno. Mikell, Mustee boy James.

"To Antepedo Baptist minister, if living on Edisto Island or if no one residing there to the Antepedo Baptist Minister in Charlestown £100 current money. That is to say the use of it to be paid to the sd. minister forever each year as the same become due.

"I will that my Indian wench Jenny be given her freedom and five shillings each year.

"6 negroes to be sold, with all goods and chattles to pay debts, and after debts are paid the remainder to be put at interest to be equally divided amongst my grandchildren now living, John Mikell, Joseph Mikell, Michael Mikell, Benjamin Mikell at the time of each arriving at the age of 21 years.

"Grandson Joseph and his lawfull heirs all my lands Plantations and buildings but if no said heirs or not arriving at age of 21 then to devolve to Michael Mikell in manner aforesaid, and to the rest in succession.

"I will that if an Antepedo Baptist Minister shall live on Edisto Island that he shall have full power and privilege to live in my said house, and to have use of all of my out houses and all my clear lands and timber until my grand son Joseph Mikell arrive at age, or his heirs.

"I do constitute and appoint Son Ephraim Mikell, Charles Odingsell, and Paul Grimball Exors."

Ephraim Mikell.

"Recorded December 10, 1733."

THIRD GENERATION—

JOHN MIKELL, planter, of Granville Co. (Ephraim 2, Ephraim 1) born 1718 and died between Dec. 13, 1764 and March 15, 1765. He was apparently married only once, and his wife was Ann _____, the family tradition says Ann Fickling, but this has not yet been confirmed.

The names of John and Ann Mikell's children with the dates of birth, are given in the Register of St. Helena Church, (Beaufort, S. C.), but there is no record of baptism, and after the birth date of one of them is written the word "Baptist."

Children of John and Ann Mikell:

Ephraim b. March 26, 1741.

Mary b. Oct. 12, 1742, md. Joseph Fickling, no issue.

Ann b. Jan. 29, 1744, d. Feb. 27, 1744.

Sarah b. March 4, 1745, md. Aeneas McLeod, issue.

John b. May 6, 1749, d. Jan 30, 1750.

Wm. Joseph, b. Nov. 3, 1751.

Josiah b. Oct. 28, 1754.

Martha, b. Feb. 23, 1757, md. John Gilbert and had issue.

Will of John Mikell, dated Dec. 13, 1764 and proved March 15, 1765, mentions:

"Wife Ann Mikell 1 negro, 1 black horse, 1 side-saddle, 1 bed and furniture for her widowhood.

"Remainder of estate to be sold and divided equally between my children, Ephraim Mikell, Mary Mikell, Sarah Mikell, Wm. Joseph Mikell, Josiah Mikell and Martha Mikell, in order to bring them up. Son Ephraim Mikell sole exor. with power to divide estate as he may think most advantageous to my sd. children.

JOHN MIKELL,
(Signature)."

Joseph Mikell (Ephraim 2, Ephraim 1) born in 1723. In 1747 Joseph Mikell and Mary his wife transfer some property (M. C. O. D. D., p. 79), (this deed is in such a mutilated condition that it is not best to handle it.) No further account of Joseph found on the records. The family tradition states that he married Mary Calder and two daughters, Ann, Mary and one son John Calder Mikell; but this John Calder Mikell was born in 1781 and died 1836, this would seem to make him too late to be the son of Joseph, he may have been the grandson.

Benjamin Mikell (Ephraim 2, Ephraim 1.) Born 1728. June 24, 1754, Benjamin Mikell and Rebecca his wife, of Granville County, convey to Thomas Drayton, 350 acres in Granville Co. on Yeuahaw Creek; sd. 350 acres granted to Ephraim Mikell, late of Granville Co., Sept. 9, 1735.

Recorded April 11, 1759.

No further record of Benjamin Mikell found.

There are several Mikells yet unplaced, who are probably descendants of the above Joseph and Benjamin.

There is a John Mikell, planter, of Craven County, who purchased, Aug. 25, 1770, 100 acres on the Great Pee Dee River from John Still (M. C. D. R. No. 3-433) and April 26, 1774, John Mikell with Ann his wife, sell these same 100 acres to Abel Kolph (R. No. 4-498 M. C. O.)

Enoch James to John Mikell, both of Craven County, 100 acres in Welch's tract on Pee Dee River, Aug. 3, 1777. Recorded Mar. 12, 1785. John Mikell, Jr. a witness.

This John Mikell saw service in the Revolution, evidently had a son (John) and is occasionally to be found on jury lists, always in Cheraw district. John Mikell with his brother William and a sister Mary, are mentioned in Gregg's history of the old Cheraws, and is evidently the John mentioned above.

The Hayne Record gives the death of an Ephraim Mikell, son of Ephraim, aged 22, in 1765; and April 9, 1767, Mary Parmenter was appointed administratrix of the estate of Ephraim Mikell, valued at £159-7-0. This Ephraim is yet unplaced.

A James Mikell was granted a commission as Deputy Surveyor General in 1766, and May 16, 1772, John Mikell was granted administration to the estate of Jas. Mikell of St. David's Parish; John McCall, Chas. McCall and Barnet Mikell being the appraisers. The inventory includes 1 surveyor's chain.

FOURTH GENERATION—

EPHRAIM MIKELL, (b. Mch. 26, 1741, d. June 22d, 1809), (John 3, Ephraim 2, Ephraim 1), married first Providence Grimball, as following abstract will show.

"Whereas Paul Grimball of Edisto Island, deceased, by his last will, dated 24 Nov. 1746, did bequeath unto me Providence Grimball, his daughter, now Providence Mikell, wife of Ephraim Mikell....." (dated May 5. 1762).

Ephraim Mikell married second, Abigail Jenkins, daughter of William and Sarah Jenkins; she was born 1749, and died 1812.

Issue:

Mary Ann b. ...., d. ...., md. Wm. Seabrook.

Ann b. ...., d. ...., md. Gabriel Seabrook.

Elizabeth b. ...., d. ...., md. 1st. Wm. Baynard,
2d. Mackay.

Ephraim b. 1774, d. Jan. 23, 1838.

Ephraim Mikell was Justice of the Peace in Charles Town District for 1776. (So. Ca. and American General Gazette, May 8, 1776.)

His will, dated April 10, 1809, and proved Dec. 1, 1809, mentions: "Wife Abigail, 18 negroes, the silver plate she was in possession of before marriage and silver teapot, sugar dish, milk pot, a salt sellers, since bought; 10 cows, 10 calves, 5 yearlings, 3 steers, my riding chair and chair horses; all the household goods and kitchen furniture remaining of what she possessed before I married her, also $3,000.00 to be paid out of my estate, like-wise the poultry on the plantation where I reside and one-fifth part of hogs all of which is given her in lieu of dower—to wife Abigail for life, house and cleared lands where I now live and service of negroes (named); use of household goods, kitchen furniture, silver plate; feather beds and bed furniture excepted; on death of sd. wife same to be returned to estate.

"Grandson Ephraim Mikell Seabrook, son of my daughter May Ann Seabrook (Negroes).

"Grandson Ephraim Mikell (Negroes).

"Grandson Ephraim Mackay (negro).

"Sisters Sarah McLeod and Martha Gilbert $100 each.

"Son Ephraim 3 negroes purchased at the sale of my sister Fickling's estate, the plantation known as Red House, and land known as Crawfords, purchased from Thomas Baynard.

"Son Ephraim  $\frac{1}{2}$  of remainder of estate and at death of wife Abigail  $\frac{1}{4}$  of estate left to her.

"Remainder of estate to be divided into three parts; daughter Mary Ann Seabrook and her heirs  $\frac{1}{3}$ .

"Daughter Ann Seabrook and her heirs  $\frac{1}{3}$ . Daughter Elizabeth Mackay  $\frac{1}{3}$  which is to be divided at her death between her children and William Baynard, son of Wm. Baynard.

"Son Ephraim, Son-in-law Joseph James Murray* and nephew John Mikell, Executors."

WILLIAM JOSEPH MIKELL, (John 3, Ephraim 2, Ephraim 1), born Nov. 3, 1751 (St. Helena Register) and died March 30, 1807, in the 55th year of his age. (Courier Ap. 4, 1807.)

He married first Lydia (Eaton?) and second Mary.....
Issue:

- (1) John b. ...., d. about 1819. He married 1st, Nov. 20th, 1804, Sarah D. Wilkinson, daughter of Capt. Joseph Wilkinson of Georgia. (Courier Nov. 29, 1804) and had one child, Margaret Wilkinson Mikell, who married in March 1825, Ephraim Mikell Seabrook.
- (2) Ann, who married James Clark and had issue:
  - a. Williams Mikell Clark, md. Abigail Jenkins Murray, daughter of Joseph James Murray—iss: Martha Mary Murray Clark. Md. 2d. Elizabeth Mary .....; issue: Joseph James Clark, Elizabeth Jenkins Clark.
  - b. Ann Mikell Clark.
  - c. Elizabeth Grimball Clark who md., 1824, John Jenkins.

(*Note. If Ephraim Mikell had another daughter who had married J. J. Murray, then she left no iss., but the term son-in-law was also used for step-son. From the reading of Ep. Mikell's will it would seem likely that Abigail Jenkins was the widow of James Murray when he married her. Abigail Mikell advertises in the S. C. Gazette and General Advertiser, April 26, 1783, as the administratrix of James Murray, deceased. If this surmise is right, then she was probably not the mother of all, if any, of Ephraim Mikell's children.)

- d. Lydia Eaton Clark md. 1825, Wm. Murray.
 (3) Sarah (Webb?) Mikell who married Dec. 6, 1806,
 James Clark, her brother-in-law, and had issue:
 a. Archibald Jeremiah Clark.
 b. Ephraim Mikell Clark.
 c. Martha Abigail Clark.
 (4). Abigail Mikell.

Will of Wm. Joseph Mikell, of Edisto Island, dated Jan. 22, 1806, and proved May 20, 1807, mentions:

Wife, Mary Mikell.
 Son, John Mikell.
 Daughter, Sarah Mikell.
 Daughter, Abigail Mikell.
 Grandchildren, Wm. Clark, Ann Mikell Clark, Elizabeth
 Grimball Clark and Lydia Eaton Clark.
 Exors., Son, John Mikell; Nephew, Ephraim Mikell, and James Clark, Sr.

Ephraim Mikell Clark (b—) son of James Clark and Sarah Webb Mikell, married Susan Jane Bailey and had issue, among others, Sarah Webb Clark, who married Townsend Mikell, as is shown farther on.

JOSIAH MIKELL, b. 1754, died Oct. 14, 1803 (Courier, Oct. 18, 1803). He left no will. Adminst. was granted to his estate to Margaret Mikell, widow, of Edisto Island, in 1804. A Josiah Mikell, probably his son, married Elizabeth Croskeys
 Murray and died about 1819; the family record compiled by Mr. T. W. Mikell states that Josiah Mikell had also daughters, Mary and Hannah, who were the first and second wives of their kinsman Robert McLeod.

FIFTH GENERATION—

JOHN CALDER MIKELL, of James Island, b. 1781 and died Oct. 11, 1836 aged 55 years, is buried on Edisto Island, and his tombstone states him to have been a native of Edisto Island. The family record, by Mr. T. W. Mikell, states he was the son of Joseph, of the 3d generation and his wife Mary Calder, but this hardly seems possible, as Joseph was born in 1723 and John Calder in 1781.

John Calder married Margaret Ann—(the family record states she was the daughter of Sarah Mikell and Aeneas McLeod).
 John Calder Mikell died intestate, and administration was granted to his widow Margaret Ann Mikell and her son Aeneas McLeod Mikell. She died in 1844 and her will mentions:

Son, Joseph Murray Mikell.
 Daughter, Martha Hardy Bailey, wife of Henry F. Bailey,
 (md. 1834.)
 Son, Aeneas McLeod Mikell.
 Lawton and James E. Mellinchamp, Wm. C.—

(*Note. These names are taken from the family record, made years ago, and have not been able to verify them.—
 M. L. W.)

1. Isaac Jenkins, (1808-1851.)
2. Ephraim, (1811-1831), md. Sarah Bailey and had one son, Ephraim Seabrook Mikell.
3. William Archibald, (1815-1840), married Hess N. Waring Smith and had:

  - b. Thos. Waring b. 1838.
  - c. Edward Wilkinson b. 1840.
4. Edward Wilkinson, (1817-1839), md. Elizabeth Seabrook. No. issue.?

5. John Calder Mikell, b. 1823, d. 1845, md. Mary Rebecca (Fraser ?), no issue.

Will of Ephraim Mikell, of Edisto Island, dated Jan. 16, 1838, and proved Feb. 15, 1838, mentions: "Wife Providence Mikell and son John Calder Mikell, plantation on which I now reside, together with 50 acres of tract of land called Red House during her life or widowhood, and on her marriage or death to son John Calder Mikell.
