

17 Meeting St.

Mar. 26th; 1964.

My dear Mr. Peeples, -

Your note awakened
pleasant memories - 2nd.
Acovists! - @ax2002! @2d2002!

As to the checking through
of the records together, for me
it will not be possible because of circumstances. Mr.
Houlbeck is more or less of an invalid, at home most of the time; my thoughts and time and energies are devoted to him.

The Miles record of St. Andrew's Parish is very full in the parish register which was published, as you probably know,
in the S.C. Historical and genealogical magazine.

Many wills and Miscellaneous

Records of the Probate Court of Charleston of Miles are in the Charleston County Library at King St. opp. Vanderhorst, easier to get at than in the Probate Court room.

I think the Silas Miles line can be traced through these and notes of M. A. Reed and D. E. Huger Smith, etc. on file in the Historical Society, as well as through other more general sources.

It is with regret that I pass up the opportunity to do as the heroes did, sit down together on the battlefield and discuss forefathers, guest-friends, etc.

The turmoil of the battle of life about us today! As old age draws near and peace seems so desirable, incidents such as your letter are brightening.

With best regards.

Elizabeth Miles Houlbeck.
