

DEATH NOTICES FROM THE SOUTH CAROLINA
GAZETTE FROM SEPTEMBER 29, 1766, TO DECEMBER 19, 1774

Contributed by MABEL L. WEBBER

Lately died at Savannah, Charles Watson, Esq. Clerk of his Majesty's Council; in whose Room, His Excellency Governor Wright has been pleased to appoint Alexander Wylly, Esquire. (Monday, Jan. 10, 1771)

Last Tuesday died, aged 75 years, Mr. Thomas Corker, of this Town, Merchant. (Monday, Feb. 7, 1771)

Last Sunday died, Mr. Alexander Russel, Shipwright—a very industrious honest man. (Monday, Feb. 11, 1771)

On the 6th ult. died, at his Plantation in Prince William's Parish, aged 83 years, Captain James MacPherson, a Native of this Province, who in the first Indian War, and at several other periods since, served this Country with Honour and Reputation. As he was remarkable for his Honesty, Generosity and Humanity, and more particularly for his friendly disposition, so his Death is universally regretted. (Thursday, April 4, 1771)

Last Thursday died very suddenly, William Catherwood, Esq. Barrack Master and Inspector of the outposts in Nova Scotia, and Surgeon of his Majesty's 40th Regiment at Halifax. (Thursday, May 9, 1771)

This Morning at Three o'clock died, after a very short illness, at Broom-Hall in Goose-Creek, leaving the whole Province to bewail his loss (except only those who are Enemies to the Cause of Freedom) that inestimable Member of the Community—that zealous, disinterested and unshaken Patriot—that true friend to America and the English Constitution—that excellent Man in every social relation—John Mackensie, Esq. one of the Representatives of the People of this Province in the present assembly, for the Parish of Saint James, Goose Creek. He was born in this Province the 30th day of March, 1738; received his education at the University of Cambridge, in England; lived an Honour to his Country; and,
