

Dear Cousin Robert

As I am staying in trying to keep warm, I am catching up with my note writing.

The only part of Ann B P's family tract is where Sarah Peebles (daug^{wth} 4 gen) married Amos Horton Sr. Their son Capt. Amos Horton Rev. vet. also served under Gen. Marion as ^{aid} your Lt John Peebles. Capt. Amos Horton's son Jesse was b. at Hanging Rock creek D.C. Also a dau of Amos H (Capt) ~~is~~ Elvina Horton m John Peebles jr - After the Rev this Horton family went to Wake Co N.C. then to Ala around 1830 - I have the Horton line documented from Barnabas Horton (from Eng. 1630) to the family here in Greene Co - Except the link of Joshua III to Amos Horton Sr - his son, but I can not find proof.

My plans are to go to Eng. and Scotland the last of April. There is a ~~a~~ County or Dist - what ever they are called ^{over there} in Scotland named 'Peebles'. I will go there and hope I will find 'Fife'. Should I find any thing about our Davids or his family will write you when I get back.

In your research keep on the lookout for Joshua H father of Amos Horton.

Sincerely
Mary Barron
