PEEBLES

Ref: Anne Bradbury Peebles

Dear Dr. Peebles:

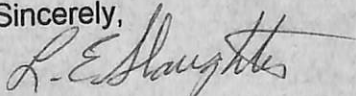

I just received your address today from Vickey Peebles-Hahn. She told me that Anne's book can be purchased from you for $28.50. You don't know how long I have been looking for an opportunity to get one. I even, several years back, wrote to Anne's old address in Washington, D.C. hoping that someone would forward it to a responsible person but it came back to me. I know of some members of the family, very distant, that have copies but I had not yet found a source until today.

I would appreciate it very much if you could get one to me. I am enclosing a personal check in that amount, if more is needed please let me know. If you need to send it by U.S. mail that is O.K. I will gladly pay the extra cost.

I am related to the Peebles by my grandmother (Alice Caroline Peebles) on my father's side. She was born in Carlinville, Illinois (Macoupin Co.) and then moved to Missouri with my grandfather Luther Slaughter. I have cousins of my father who are Peebles living in Rockford and I know they would be thrilled to see her book.

If you see fit, write and let me know where exactly you fit in with the family, I would love to hear from you. I am a retired police detective and I enjoy seeing the pieces of a mystery put together. Hoping to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

Loyal Slaughter
