A BRIDE-ELECT WAS THE HONOREE

Miss Bradley, Mr. Brannen Are Married

Miss Marsha Hill Bradley became the bride of Perry Brannen Jr. on Saturday, December 26, at 6:30 p.m. The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Walton Stewart in the First Presbyterian Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Bradley. The parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Perry Brannen.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white silk peau de soie dress featuring a Florentine neckline appliqued with Alencon lace, and long calla-point sleeves. A pointed basque waistline topped the dome skirt with deep side pleats and sprays of lace appliques. A bow, long back streamers, and train completed the design.

She wore a chapel-length mantilla of Alencon lace embroidered on bridal illusion. Her bouquet was a cascade of white camellias.

Maid of Honor

Miss Jody Sutlive attended the bride as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Samuel P. Inglesby Jr., Mrs. Franklin P. Brannen, Mrs. Robert B. Sowell Jr., and Mrs. Thomas Spradling of Asheville, N.C.

Each attendant wore a floor-length dress of peacock blue silk and worsted, with scoop neckline, elbow-length sleeves, and narrow emerald edging on the inset midriff which was caught in back with a self-floweret. They wore matching pillboxes and carried bouquets of camellias.

The bridegroom's brother, Franklin P. Brannen, was his best man. The ushers were Renwick F. Bradley and John L. Bradley, brothers of the bride; Samuel P. Inglesby Jr., Dean Smith Jr., and Richard G. Tisinger of Carrollton.

Antique Satin

The bride's mother wore an imported floor-length sheath of silk antique satin, in Aberdeen blue. The bodice was embroidered in rhinestones, crystal beads and sequins, with a scooped neckline and elbow-length sleeves. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. Brannen wore a full-length champagne crepe dress. The bodice and short sleeves were embroidered in gold beads and iridescent sequins. Her accessories were gold, and she wore a white orchid.

A reception was held at the Oglethorpe Club. For traveling, the bride chose a two-piece aqua wool suit with a full-length coat, and black accessories.

Miss Marsha Bradley Completes Her Plans 6 Dec. 1964

Miss Marsha Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Bradley, and Perry Brannen Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Brannen, have completed plans for their December 26 wedding in the First Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. J. Walton Stewart will perform the ceremony at 6:30 p.m.

Miss Josephine Sutlive of Knoxville, Tenn., will be the bride's maid of honor. Mrs. Frank Brannen of Athens, Mrs. Samuel Inglesby, Mrs. Robert Sowell and Mrs. Thomas Spradling of Asheville, N.C., will be bridesmaids.

The bridegroom's brother, Franklin Peeples Brannen of Athens, will be his best man, and Renwick F. Bradley, brother of the bride, Richard Tysinger of Athens, and Dean Smith will be groomsmen. The bride's brothers, Dr. Thomas Jordan Bradley Jr. and John Lyon Bradley, will serve as ushers.
