

Dear Dr. Peeples,

Your name was given to me twice within 24 hours to write asking about your publication of a new family history.

I am anxious to obtain a copy if you will forward any information to me.

Our family line is from Henry Thompson Peeples, a son of Henry Peeples, born 1786 in Camden District of South Carolina. He moved to Georgia around 1825. His wife was Mary (Polly) Smith.

In keeping with this name
and his father's, I am;

Sincerely,

(Mrs. Henry William Peeples)

Dear Robert + Lisa

This $20⁰⁰ is for a Peoples Book.

I thought I had one left for me but all I can find is one with Tilleere's name in it - So please bring one Sunday when you come.

Do you know who has the information
mentioned on page 33 "a record of the children of Isham⁵, as made by Jasiab⁶, and found in the home of Joseph, son of Pierson and godson of Isham, Jr.?" How or where is it proved that Pierson is the son of Isham. I know my father always told me the Millport tract was a grant to uncle Jasiab and the original deed was to Jasiab.

Oh Well, I don't see how Anne Magberry could accumulate this much information even if she was helped financially and had some information furnished. She was to be dedicated to our work.

See you Sunday

Love
E. Beel

Robert, I spent about 1/2 hours this morning in the office of clerk of Court and found in Fred Barb 3 a list from 3284m Pupler listing and naming every one of his children and Pierson Pupler is one of the heirs. That takes care of the missing link, I'll have a copy for you to send with my application,

Ernest

Dear Dr. Peeples:

Thank you for a very interesting reply. What a wonderful letter about a family so rich in the traditions and determinations that made this country strong from the very beginning, when our ancestors came to the new land.

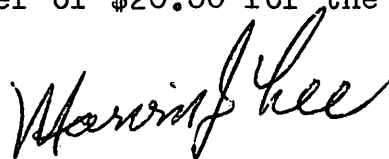

Not many can realize the time, the work, and the hours of study it takes to put together the history of a family reaching out in so many directions. Year 1649 is going back a long ways and I am sure we must stop and think of the people before that, who they were and what their life was like. That is our roots and the longest line of our family tree.

George Ann's father still lives on the farm where he was born. His mother was Mary Ann Peeples, married to Andrew Webb-Mixson. One time we inquired about ancestors and George Ann's mother got information from Lillian. I believe I was told some years ago, J.C. Peeples has much more details. So Like you say, that's where it is. Maybe twenty-five years ago, Lewis Mixson and I were there. But that was before we started on our family tree. Wisconsin is so far away that we don't get much visiting done. You know how it is when vacation is only a week or so.

I am enclosing a copy of a page from a set of books we borrowed from the WISCONSIN STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY. While reading up on some People of the Civil War five years ago. You may keep it. I am not sure of the exact name of the set. It was written about 1900 or later.

I am also enclosing a money order of $20.00 for the Peeples/Ante 1600-1962 book.

Thank you

Dear Rev. Peeples,

I am interested in purchasing your book about the Peeples Family. I have discovered an ancestress born in MS and moved to TX by 1870. Census . Since this is all the information I have on this family, I am hoping your book will help narrow my research and provide me some clues.

Thank you for sharing your research.

Please send a copy to:
