RE: DAR History Award Medal Candidate — Rev. Dr. Robert E.H. Peeples

Dear Mrs. Colburn:

The Captain William Hilton Chapter, NSDAR, Hilton Head Island, South Carolina submits to you our applicant for the DAR History Award Medal.

Enclosed are the following items:

- ★ Table of Contents
- ★ Application
- ★ Biographical Sketch
- ★ Letters of Recommendation
- ★ Numerous Work of the Nominee

Rev. Dr. Peeples, a noted Lowcountry author and local historian has been living in and writing about South Carolina history and the History of the Lowcountry, in particular, for the last 50 years. Since Chapters are not able to notify nominees of their nomination it was difficult to obtain his entire collection of works. However, our Committee feels the enclosed are a definitive representation of his historical efforts. Without his knowledge, Dr. Peeples' wife, Mrs. Cora McKenzie Peeples helped us put together this noteworthy collection of his works. Other copies of his historical articles were obtained from the local library and newspaper archives.

It is our Chapter's privilege to guarantee payment for the DAR History Award Medal for this notable man. Please contact me should you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Thomas J. Hanahan, Regent

DAR HISTORY AWARD MEDAL

★ ALLOW AT LEAST FOUR MONTHS TO PROCESS ALL APPLICATIONS FOR DAR HISTORY AWARD MEDALS ★

PURPOSE OF THE AWARD:

The DAR History Award Medal is given to a nominee whose study and/or promotion of some aspect of American history, on the local, regional, or national level, has significantly advanced the understanding of our nation's past. Nominees must demonstrate significant contributions to the study and/or promotion of American history outside, above and beyond that which is required for any paid employment in order to be eligible for this award. Persons eligible for this DAR award include archivists, manuscript curators, or professional staff members of archives, historical societies, libraries, museums, or other organizations focusing on history; college professors, writers/editors of significant historical publications, historical researchers, and persons involved with preservation efforts of historical buildings, artifacts, or records. Persons whose primary work is in the field of genealogy are not generally eligible for the award unless they also have made significant history-related contributions to the study of American history. Since the History Award Medal requirements stipulate that work that is either multi-disciplinary or is completed in other disciplines, such as genealogy, museum studies, anthropology, or political science, cannot form the principal basis for the History Award Medal nomination, it is recommended that a different DAR honor be pursued for persons whose primary work is outside the field of history. Secondary level educators (grades 6-12) should be honored through participation in the NSDAR Outstanding Teacher of American History Contest. Members of the NSDAR are eligible for this award; however, they must meet the same rigorous requirements as non-NSDAR nominees. The DAR History Award Medal's purpose is to honor the contributions of just one person, rather than a team. NOTE: The award is not presented to more than one person involved with a specific historical project.

THE NOMINATION:

Complete the application form and include it with the required materials. An application form and the explanation of the materials that should be submitted in support of a candidate appear on the reverse side of this form. A nomination may be submitted by a DAR chapter or state society, and must be signed by the Chapter Regent, State Historian, or other DAR official designated by the nominating body as its contact person. The letter of nomination must state that the chapter or state society guarantees payment for the DAR History Award Medal. The nominating chapter shall not advise the nominee that he/she is being considered for this particular DAR award. For no reason may the nominee contact, at any time, the Historian General or her staff concerning any aspect of the nomination.

Nominations should be addressed to: Historian General, National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, Administration Building, 1776 D Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., 20006-5392. Phone: (202) 879-3256 E-mail: historian@dar.org

CRITERIA BY WHICH NOMINATIONS ARE JUDGED

Each nomination is judged only on the accomplishments of the nominee in relation to the criteria listed above. Nominations are not compared or contrasted with other nominations. In addition to the requirement that a substantial portion of the nominee's contribution to American history must have been made during the last five years, the following criteria are used in evaluating a nomination for the medal:

- (1) Originality and significance of the nominee's contribution to the understanding and/or promotion of American history;
- (2) The magnitude of the impact of the work of the nominee; and
- (3) The positive recognition of the nominee's work by a majority of those knowledgeable in the field.

If you have questions about this award, please write or call the Office of the Historian General.

ALL OF THE FOLLOWING MATERIALS MUST BE INCLUDED WITH THIS NOMINATION:

(1) BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH:

This sketch must indicate the nominee's functional relationship to the study and/or promotion of American history. It is important that you provide specific examples of the nominee's publications, historically related projects, professional work, membership in historical organizations, etc. Please note that general statements are not sufficient for evaluating the work and activities of the nominee. For example, if the nominee is associated with a local historical society, the following information should be provided: type and composition (size, mission statement, etc.) of organization; length of membership; offices held; and a detailed summary of all history-related activities, projects, or work directed or accomplished by the nominee. Non-historically related activities should not be included. Please do not send photographs of the nominee. The application will be reviewed without respect to race, religion, sex, or national origin.

(2) LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION:

Provide at least three letters of recommendation from professionals closely associated with history, who are not DAR members and who are in a position to evaluate seriously the historical contributions of the nominee. These evaluations should concentrate on the historically-related activities of the nominee; character references are not sought for this award. Each letter must contain the following: (1) a statement explaining why the writer is in a position to evaluate the contributions of the nominee to the field of American history; (2) a detailed summary of the activities/projects/works being evaluated by the writer; and (3) a clear explanation of why the writer feels that the activities/projects/works detailed in the letter of recommendation are original and significant to the study and promotion of American history. Letters of recommendation that do not contain the information listed above will not be considered when evaluating the work of the nominee.

(3) WORK OF THE NOMINEE:

Examples of the nominee's recent work (within the past five years) must be included with the nomination. Examples of materials which should be included are: copies of scholarly writing (monographs, journal essays, periodical articles); reviews of the nominee's work published in professional journals, newspapers, and other such publications; documents showing the nominee's leading role respecting historically related projects, preservation efforts, or work with historical organizations (examples of this type of material include copies of grant applications, historically related informative brochures, speeches, slide shows, lectures, or exhibits prepared by the nominee); and other materials that clearly show the extent and value of the nominee's historical endeavors. Projects in which the nominee played a pivotal role should be emphasized, as should any volunteer historical work completed by the nominee. Be specific when describing the nominee's work.

Dear Ms. Hanahan:

With a life long interest in and passion for the study of history, it was natural that I should encounter the Rev. Dr. Robert E. H. Peeples upon first coming to Hilton Head Island in the 1980's. Following my retirement in 1994 from Rockwell International Corporation as a financial officer and subsequent move to Hilton Head Island in 1994 I have devoted much of my time to the study of history and genealogy. I have worked closely Dr. Peeples over the last 14 years. In my various capacities as President of the Hilton Head Island Genealogical Society; Life Member and Treasurer of the Hilton Head Island Historical Society; and Founding Member, Senior Librarian and currently Vice President & Treasurer of the Heritage Library Foundation, Inc. I have found Robert's knowledge and enthusiasm to be invaluable.

Robert Peeples was one of a handful of people instrumental in the formation of The Heritage Library, a not-for-profit history and genealogy research library here on Hilton Head Island. When the idea of having a room dedicated to local island and Lowcountry history and genealogy contained within the Hilton Head Branch of the Beaufort County Public Library was rejected by county library officials it was determined to create an independent facility to serve local historians and genealogists. We, therefore, began the planning process for forming a private not-for-profit Foundation and named it, The Heritage Library. Robert Peeples was a founding member and life member, a member of the original steering committee and has served on the Board of Directors since the inception of the Library. In the nearly four years of its existence The Heritage Library has grown from the germ of an idea to a well known and highly regarded "state of the art" research center do in no small part to the efforts of Robert Peeples.

Dr. Peeples has served the local historical community in many other ways such as serving as Founder and President of the local Historical Society for the past 32 years. In this capacity he is constantly engaged in the protection and preservation of the history of the Carolina Lowcountry and the Sea Islands. He has served as President of First Families of South Carolina and Sons of the American Revolution. In addition he has served on the boards of many historical societies such as Chatham County, Georgia Artillery, South Carolina Huguenot Society, Heritage Library, and Descendants of Colonial Clergy.

Since moving to Hilton Head Island in 1952, Dr. Peebles has worked religiously gathering data on Island and Lowcountry history. He is an accomplished author. Some of his works with which I am familiar include:

- (1) A View of Thomas Heyward—Thomas Heyward was local planter and patriot who became a signer of the Declaration of Independence. In addition to writing about our local patriot Dr. Peebles leads a group each Fourth of July to the Tomb of Thomas Heyward. Groups participating in this event include two chapters of the DAR, Thomas Heyward and Captain William Hilton, Dr. George S. Mosse Chapter SAR, The Hilton Head Island Historical Society, The Bluffton Historical Society, the Children of the American Revolution and the Beaufort Historical Society as well as local citizens interested in attending this prestigious event.

- (2) Dr. Peebles has documented Island history and points of historical significance in his papers, "A History of the Northwest Corner of Hilton Head Island"; "The Dynastic Families of Hilton Head Island"; "Dr. George Mosse, Militia Surgeon"; "Mongin Bluff, Now Spanish Wells, Owned by Patriot John David Mongin". These and other papers have been presented to such groups as the local Chamber of Commerce, DAR, SAR, SCSAR, Colonial Dames, Lion's Club, Island Women's Club, Historical Societies of Hilton Head Island and Bluffton, South Carolina, South Carolina Huguenot Society and many more too numerous to mention.

As a native South Carolinian, Dr. Robert Peebles has carved out a niche of South Carolina Lowcountry history that cannot be equaled. Recording local history since 1952, when he and his wife, Cora McKenzie Peebles first moved to Hilton Head Island, Dr. Peebles provides newcomers and transplant Yankees, such as myself, the opportunity to learn, read and meditate on the historical significance of our Island home. Both Robert and Cora are constantly vigilant to the need to preserve and protect the historic heritage of the nation as it is reflected in the lives of present day South Carolinians. Equally important has been their zeal for communicating their knowledge to the present and future generations of our Island's residents and to visitors from around the world.

I consider Dr. Peebles a formidable candidate for and deserving of the DAR History Award Medal and highly recommend the Committee's favorable consideration of this recommendation by the Captain William Hilton Chapter, NSDAR.

Respectfully submitted,

E. W. Altstaetter
Society Officer and Director

The Regent,
The Captain William Hilton Chapter, NSDAR

My dear Madam:

Please allow me to introduce myself, I am The Rev'd. Canon Richard P. McDonnell, III, D.Min, an Anglican/Episcopalian Priest at The Church of the Redeemer, Hilton Head Island, South Carolina, Vice President, and Chaplain of The Hilton Head Island Historical Society, and an Adjunct History Professor at Armstrong Atlantic State University in Savannah, Georgia.

It has been a honour and a great reward for me and my family to know and followed the tenure of The Rev'd. Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. H. H. Peebles since 1986, when we first got to know them, and, then after 1990 when we moved to Hilton Head Island full time, and have had the opportunity to know them better and in depth. The good doctor is in his eighty's is anything but retired. In fact he is much more engaged in his many ministries and services to God, country and his fellowman than five other clergy, half his age.

I have been acquainted intimately with The Rev'd. Dr. Robert E. H. Peebles since 1986 in both religious, personal, and social aspects. I serve on the Board of the Hilton Head Island Historical Society and have worked closely in this regard with Dr. Peebles over these years. Besides being a active brother Priest, I am a professional and avid historian, as well as a local history researcher. As such I have been well able to see Dr. Peebles first hand at work, and very often have and will ask for his well reasoned and sound insight and advise.

In his, Tales of Antebellum Hilton Head Island Families, 1970, Dr. Peeples details the lives, genealogies and legends of several prominent South Carolina Low country and Hilton Head Island families including, Col. John Barnwell, James Davant, Captain William Lawton, William Seabrook, Dr. George Mosse, William Pope, and many others. He follows through with the post Revolutionary War families of the Stoneys, Hanahans, Rev. William Graham, the four Davant brothers, James, John, Isaac and Charles. This precious work referenced work provides genealogists and local history buffs alike the opportunity to piece together what would have been fragments of information. It is written in a well-thought, easy to read manner. This publication provides the reader a wealth of information in a small package.

To say the very lest, Dr. Peeples has a brilliant memory and often delivers presentations such as his, "Religious Currents During the Confederate Era", and "Proprietary Land Grants in Granville County -Beaufort District" directly from memory without benefit of notes or other documentation. He is an engaging, gifted, and to great credit, at times comedic presenter.

Dr. Peeples has over the many years he has faithfully served here, spearheaded numerous historical endeavors locally, to name but a few:

1. Erecting historical markers for Revolutionary and Civil War sites;
2. Establishing the annual pilgrimage to the Tomb of Thomas Heyward, signer of the Declaration of Independence and local hero;
3. Obtaining, the Zion Chapel of Ease Revolutionary Cemetery, and overseeing its annual maintenance
4. Personally researching and documenting the history of each Plantation located on Hilton Head Island and in the Bluffton area as well.

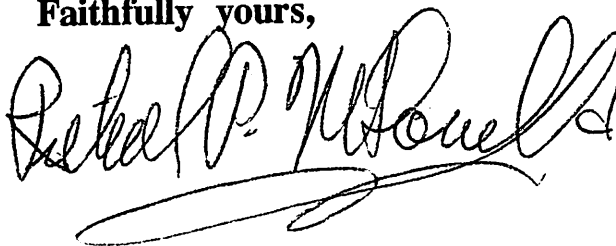

It is rightly said that for the last nearly 50 years, Dr. Peeples has devoted his time and talent to God, the church and our country. Without his vast considerable knowledge, investigation and documentation of the lives and events of local heroes and citizens, current residents and historians would spend countless hours researching on their own time for precious clues to our past. In a mere half hour conversation with the good Doctor, a researcher, can save at least a month's worth of research in the archives. He knows of what he speaks, and can lay his hands on the documents, while talking to you. He not only can site and find documents and facts, but he has the gift to bring them alive. He can set the context correctly to every historical event I have ever present him with. He is a rare find in himself, and a living cornucopia of knowledge, whose fruits are freely enjoyed by one and all.

I do most heartily, and highly recommend him to you, and hope that you will consider post haste, The Rev'd Dr. Robert E. H. Peeples as a most worthwhile candidate for the DAR History Award Medal, an award I believe that the good doctor should have been awarded twenty years ago. If I may be of any other service, please feel free to call upon me.

God Bless America... one nation under God....

Faithfully yours,
