Michael T. Pennington is working on the "Georgia Abel's" and will share upon its' completion. That work should prove very interesting to us. This from Michael on 2/19/00: "...I also have several records for Abel Jr. and Abel Sr. in GA, including one where "Able" Sr. paid the taxes for "Able" Jr. " (Can't wait to see that one—SAE) Then on 2/22/00 he sent: ""Deed of sale from Abel Pennington to Joseph Wilson," Apr 1807 (recorded 4 Jan(?) 1810), Jackson County, GA, Superior Court, General Index to deeds and mortgages, Book 1, 1796-1876 [deed recorded Book E, p. 260]. FHL Film No. 325693. "I would guess this is your Abel-d. 1819 selling some of his land to his new(?) son-in-law. I have not yet reviewed the deed recorded in Book E (my info is from an index), and maybe it will provide more clues. Looks like Abel had land in Jackson Co. in 1807 and perhaps lived there for sometime before that. Since you have him in Randolph Co. by 1808, maybe he sold all his land to Joseph and moved to Randolph??"

Nancy Mann sent the following 2/18/2000 (Nancy also sent other information included in sources to be added later):

Here are some more refernces to Abel Pennington d. 1819 for you to share:

Keep in mind that what is now Jasper County was created as Randolph County in 1807. The folks of GA came to no longer appreciate the politics of Mr. Randolph for whom the county was named (he opposed the War of 1812), and the name was changed to Jasper in DEC 1812. Later, there came to be another Randolph County in GA, but it was not Jasper County.

From JASPER COUNTY, GA DEED BOOKS 1-2, 1807-1810 by John I Bruno @1999

Abel Pennington witnessed a deed in Randolph Co 27 FEB 1809 (Buyer was Jethro Mobley, add'l witness was Samuel Lovejoy

Deed Bk 1, Pg 500-502 Abel and Sarah Pennington of Randolph County sold land to Joshua Callaway of same, Lot 194 Dist 16, 101.25 a. sold for $470 on 19 DEC 1808, wit: James Buchanan, William McCain, Joseph Buchannon, David McNeal, JP

Deed Bk 2, Pg 102-104 Jethro Mobley of Randolph County sold land to Abel Pennington of same, Lot 63 in 13th District, 202.5 a. for $500 on 1 JUN 1808, wit: Isaac Kindall, Joshua Reeves, Joshua Callaway

The lot in Dist 16 was only 1 1/2 lots from where the Joseph Wilson family lived at the time of his death in 1822.

5. Sometime between 1811 and 1813, Abel Pennington moved to Tuscaloosa, AL (then Mississippi Territory)... This reference is from Some Notes from the Early History of Tuscaloosa County by WM. H. Brantley, Esq. as recorded in Alabama Magazine, Vol. 17, No. 1, p. 5 1983. I have more from this if you are interested. It further states he had a substantial Plantation on Hurricane Creek, by 1816 with "Pennington Mill" located on the land (referred to in the diary of Richard Breckenridge as of 1816). However, I still question, if the family had land, acreage and homes in both places??? or...did the land actually cross over into Georgia. Need to review both maps?

[Abel, died 1819 (group 11) and family migration. My [Shirley Nobles Erickson] records show that Abel and Sarah Sweeten (wife) migrated... "from Wilkes Co., NC to Greenville, S.C. where he received land grants in 1785. In 1788 he purchased 240 acres of land on Cedar Creek in Wilkes Co., GA and lived on it until he sold it a year later. In the 1790 census, Abel Penninton was in the census of Oglethorpe, GA.

In 1805, Both Abel Pennington, Sr. and Abel Pennington, Jr. were in the Georgia Land Lottery. Abel, Sr. got two draws, indicating he was married and had children. Abel, Jr. got one draw, indicating he was over 21, but single.

By 1808, Abel Pennington, Sr. was in Randolph Co., Ga., and by 1811, he was in Jasper Co., GA. Sometime between 1811 and 1813, Abel Pennington moved to Tuscaloosa, AL (then Mississippi Territory)..."

The rest is regarding AL. I suppose some of these could indeed be other Abels but the timing is correct for it to be the same Abel.]

2. ABEL⁷ PENNINGTON (ABEL⁶, BENAJAH⁵, EPHRLAM⁴, EPHRLAM³, EPHRLAM², EPHRLAM¹)²⁵ was born Abt. 1774.

Notes for ABEL PENNINGTON:

Bill Grubbs writes on Dec. 18, 1999... " Further, family tradition, holds that Malinda Pennington was the daughter of an innkeeper. I was given information by email some time ago that one Abel Pennington had applied for a license to keep a public house in Alabama about 1816."

The fact that Abel, Jr. received only one draw in the 1805 Georgia land lottery indicates that he was over 21 but single at the time. Marriage and all children would therefore be born after 1805.

Notes for MALINDA M. PENNINGTON:

The following came 12/18/99 from cousin Bill Grubbs. Bill, I would love to see any documentation and information you have listed below:

"...I have for some time believed that my ggggrandmother Malinda M. Pennington was the daughter of Abel Pennington of Alabama.

Unfortunately, I have no proof of this. What I do know is that Malinda married John B. Rodgers in Madison Co., Ala on 1 Feb 1818 according to Gandrud's register of Alabama marriages. She died 28 Dec 1847 in Memphis, TN and her obituary was in The Memphis Appeal for that date.

In 1836, John B. Rodgers was a Captain in the Tennessee Militia and a Henry Pennington served under him. Further, family tradition, holds that Malinda Pennington was the daughter of an innkeeper. I was given information by email some time ago that one Abel Pennington had applied for a license to keep a public house in Alabama about 1816."

3. ISAAC⁷ PENNINGTON (ABEL⁶, BENAJAH⁵, EPHRLAM⁴, EPHRLAM³, EPHRLAM², EPHRLAM¹)⁴⁴ was born Abt. 1778.

Child of ISAAC PENNINGTON is:

His father JOHN COATES ADAMSON (See BIO 36)
His mother NANCY R. PENNINGTON (See BIO 36)
Her father JORDAN AMERSON WOOD (See BIO 43)
Her mother EMILY CLEGG (See BIO 43)

He was called Jack or Jackson. She went by Martha.

Jackson lived with his parents at home in Tallapoosa Co. until after his 18th birthday, according to 1850 and 1860 census records.

He enlisted in the CSA Army on 3-18-1861 at Kowliga, serving in Co. E., 1st Ala. Artillery Battalion. He was discharged 4-9-1865. (See later entry for pension information.) His unit was organized 2-23-1861 and mustered into service on 5-24-1861, assigned to Mobile, Ala., area throughout war. Fought in Battle of Mobile Bay in August, 1864, surrendering at Fort Morgan, Mobile Bay, on Aug. 22, 1864. His unit was held prisoner until April, 1865, when war ended.

"Marriage Records 1861-1890 of Chambers County, Ala.," Vol. II, published by Genealogical Society of East Alabama, 1974, page 198, shows marriage of "Pinkney J. Adamson to Martha R. Wood, Dec 25, 1866, by G.H. Clifton, JP, at residence of J.A. Wood."

By 1870, Jackson had relocated to Tallapoosa County, living in the Gold Branch area. The 1870 T.Co. census, page 003, shows:

Adamson Jack	28 M	Blacksmith	$800	$200	ALA
Martha	21 F	Keeping House			ALA
Lamar	3 F				ALA
William	1 M				ALA

Pinkney Jackson was not located in 1880 census.

RESEARCH NOTE: Cleggs book says Martha Rebecca Wood Adamson died 1878 in Randolph Co., GA and was buried in Rock Hill Cem. Also gives birth year of 1850, as does LDS.

He filed for CSA Pension (No. 22705) in Tallapoosa County on 6-12-1899, at age 59, claiming effects of "dieare (sic) contracted in war" as well as "sequel to measles on lungs." He stated he owned no real estate; 1 mule worth $50; 2 cattle, $15; 1 clock, $1; furniture, $75; and farm tools, $15; for total net worth of $156.

He was still in Gold Branch area of Tallapoosa Co., in 1900, p. 16 showing:

273 Adamson, P.J.	Head	M	May 1840	60	AL	GA	AL
Martha R.	Wife	F	Apr 1849	51	AL	GA	GA
Charley	Son	M	Jun 1877	22	AL	AL	AL

Mary F.	Dau	F	Oct 1886	13	AL	AL	AL
George T.	Son	M	Sep 1893	7	AL	AL	AL

It also indicates that Martha R. Adamson had 12 children, one of whom (George Taylor Adamson) had died.

He moved to Mississippi after turn of century. Most of his children went with him; some of the boys having married Tallapoosa County girls; but most of the girls married in Miss.

1910 Winston Co., Miss., census p. 91 finds him next door to his son, John C.:

187 Adamson, Pinkney J. 69 M AL AL AL
Martha R. 60 F AL GA GA

It indicates they had been married 43 years, that they rented (from son John C., who owned property?), and that she had had 12 children, of whom 10 were living.

Harry Wilson has numerous original documents on the Joseph and Sally (Pennington) Wilson family including deeds, birth records, etc. (many are signed by Sally Pennington siblings or her father, Abel Pennington). In 2000, Harry completed a CD with images of these documents along with a chronological index of the documents.

....another paper of a land sale to Joseph Wilson, my GGGrandfather by Etheldred Wood and witnessed by Samuel Wilson, Samuel Pennington, and Abel Pennington it is dated Dec 5, 1806. It is 15 and one-half by 13 tall. Too big to scan. I scanned it a Kinko's. The writing on the back was done at the court house (probably) and that in the upper left was done by my Grandparents when they went through the papers before my father got them.

Notes for ELIZABETH PENNINGTON:

12/13/99 Shelley Gregory writes... "In the listing of children of Abel (d.1819)..., one of the children of Betsy (b. abt. 1787) is left out. Betsy was first married to Henry Ramsey (Ramsay) and their child Sarah Ann (Salley) is mentioned in the court records in Georgia in the settlement of his estate. Sarah A. Ramsey married John Patterson and is found in the 1850 Tuscaloosa Co. AL census as 44 yrs. old and born in "Geo." and 7 children listed. Years ago in the PP Marian S. Ward, my second cousin once removed, wrote on the children of Betsy and mistakenly thought "Salley Ann Ramsey" was "already married." I will get documentation for this for you after the holidays"

1. Annabelle Pennington Nobles Stone, Research Journals of Annabelle Pennington Nobles Stone, The documents Shirley Nobles Erickson presently has are: Abel d. 1819, "Will", "Article of Agreement", "Prison Bounds".
2. Nancy Mann, Ngmann@aol.com, Here are some more references to Abel Pennington d. 1819 for you to share: Keep in mind that what is now Jasper County was created as Randolph County in 1807. The folks of GA came to no longer appreciate the politics of Mr. Randolph for whom the county was named (he opposed the War of 1812), and the name was changed to Jasper in DEC 1812. Later, there came to be another Randolph County in GA, but it was not Jasper County. From JASPER COUNTY, GA DEED BOOKS 1-2, 1807-1810 by John I Bruno @1999 Abel Pennington witnessed a deed in Randolph Co 27 FEB 1809 (Buyer was Jethro Mobley, add'l witness was Samuel Lovejoy Deed Bk 1, Pg 500-502 Abel and Sarah Pennington of Randolph County sold land to Joshua Callaway of same, Lot 194 Dist 16, 101.25 a. sold for $470 on 19 DEC 1808, wit: James Buchanan, William McCain, Joseph Buchannon, David McNeal, JP Deed Bk 2, Pg 102-104 Jethro Mobley of Randolph County sold land to Abel Pennington of same, Lot 63 in 13th District, 202.5 a. for $500 on 1 JUN 1808, wit: Isaac Kindall, Joshua Reeves, Joshua Callaway The lot in Dist 16 was only 1 1/2 lots from where the Joseph Wilson family lived at the time of his death in 1822.
3. Nancy Mann, This comes from the Andrea Files at the Ladson Genealogical Library in Vidalia, GA. "Andrea" was a noted professional genealogist in SC for many, many years. At his death, he gave his files to the Ladson library. So anyway, he research the surname Pennington in SC for someone, but I only have one page of his notes (shame on me :-), so here is the mention of Abel: Headright Grants in SC Able Pennington 240a. in 96th District surveyed 7 JUL 1784 Abel Pennington 120a. in 96th District surveyed 17 JUL 1784 Also receiving grants were Abraham (1755), Jacob (1751-1791), Benjamin (1812), Isaac (1815) Thomas (1799)..
4. Nancy Mann, Here are some of my Abel Pennington notes, sources provided, my comments/explanations in brackets [] : INDEX TO THE HEADRIGHT AND BOUNTY LAND GRANTS OF GEORGIA by Lucas Abel Pennington granted in Jackson County Grant Book DDDDD Page 428 456.5 acres granted in 1801 Abel Pennington Jackson County Book F-5 Pg 452 200 a. 1806 Abel Pennington Jackson County Book F-5 Pg 454 271 a. 1806 Abel Pennington Jackson Co. Book K-5 Pg 38 212 a. 1814 Abel Pennington Wilkes Co. Book EEEE Pg 434 150 a. 1794 [Headright grants were given based on application for the lands. Your maximum allowable grant was determined by the number of persons in the household, including slaves and servants. People didn't usually petition for their maximum, you had to make some improvements within a specified amount of time in order to keep the land. Bounty lands were for soldiers and citizens both. This book doesn't distinguish between the two kinds of grant.] THE 1805 GEORGIA LAND LOTTERY by Wood and Wood Abel Pennington, Sr. registered for 2 draws in Jackson County, both draws were blanks Abel Pennington Jr. registered for 1 draw in Jackson County, it was a blank [This registration took place in 1803, so the two Abels were in Jackson County by that time. Abel Jr. got one chance because he was 21 or older. Males 21 and older with wife and/or legitimate children under 21 yrs. could have two draws, so that would be Abel Sr.'s category.] I don't have the 1807 Land Lottery winners, but suspect that Abel Sr. was a winner in Baldwin County, which split that year into Randolph (which was renamed to Jasper in 1812). Land lottery lots were about $8 for 202 1/2 a. lots. However, they were on the Indian frontier of Georgia and many times people didn't want to take up the lots they won. They often sold them to land speculators. So Abel either won a lot or bought one about the time of this Land Lottery.

28. Bill Grubbs, I have a for some time believed that my ggggrandmother Malinda M. Pennington was the daughter of Abel Pennington of Alabama. Unfortunately, I have no proof of this. What I do know is that Malinda married John B. Rodgers in Madison Co., Ala on 1 Feb 1818 according to Gandrud's register of Alabama marriages. She died 28 Dec 1847 in Memphis, TN and her obituary was in The Memphis Appeal for that date. In 1836, John B. Rodgers was a Captain in the Tennessee Militia and a Henry Pennington served under him. Further, family tradition, holds that Malinda Pennington was the daughter of an innkeeper. I was given information by email some time ago that one Abel Pennington had applied for a license to keep a public house in Alabama about 1816. Can you shed some light on how Malinda Pennington Rodgers might be connected to the rest of the Penningtons?

35. Research of Shirley Nobles Erickson and Tiffany Erickson Seitz, In 1852, Abel Lane Pennington (for service as a private in Captain Dent's Company, Regiment Georgia Volunteers, Creek War) received 40 19/100's aces identified as: (Warrant No. 4886 for 40.) SW quarter of the SW of Sec 20 in Township 18 of Range 7 in the District of Lands subject to the sale at Lebanon, Alabama containing 40 acres and 19/100's of an acre. In 1859, Abel L. Pennington of Talladega County, Alabama received (bought) another 40 acres identified as (Certificate No. 18252) the SE quarter of the SW quarter, of Section 20, in Township 18, of Range 7, in the district of Lands formerly subject to sale at Lebanon, now Centre, Alabama, containing 40 acres, and 19/100's of an acre. In 1866, his widow, Rebecca Norton Pennington and heirs sold the land (Book M, Page 764 Talladega Co., Alabama) to E. K. Lackey for $150. This time the land is identified as the SW 1/4 of the SW 1/4 and SE 1/4 of the SW 1/4 of Section 20, in Township 18, Range 7 lying in Talladega County containing 80 and more or less acres. Attested by L. Baguile (?) Signed by Rebecca Pennington, M. A. Barbaree, N. E. Markham, W. M. Pennington, John I. Pennington. These were their children of age except for one. (all listed below). I did notice there is a Barbaree Creek close to the Horse Creek Cemetery. It is there that I believe Abel could be buried.

113. Kerry Barksdale, Descendants of Elizabeth (Betsy) Pennington, (2-28-2000), Shelley Gregory refutes some of the information of the Barksdale report with the following: "The 36 page article Kerry sent MAY have correct information on the descendants of Fielding Peter Poole but it starts off with several mistakes, among them are the supposed marriage date for the marriage of Henry Ramsey and Betsy Pennington (too late, it would have been 1806 or before). Also the parents of Adam Poole were listed as William Poole and Elizabeth Tapley. I have William as his grandfather and Elizabeth Tapley as William's first wife. William's next wife was Elizabeth Watson. They had Walter Poole who I have as Adam's father. (Adam's first wife was Elizabeth Mabry and then married Elizabeth (Betsy) Pennington Ramsey. They must have met at the Court House as they both had lost a mate and had business there) I thought that both Adam and Betsy were both deceased at the time of Abel Pennington's will. The next wrong info was the listing of "Sallie Ann Poole (daughter of Adam Poole and Elizabeth (Betsy) Pennington) married Mr. Ramsey" WRONG!!!! Sallie Ann is a Ramsey, daughter of Betsy and Henry Ramsey who had died and is mentioned in Jasper Co. GA Court records concerning his estate as a child of Henry with Elizabeth and her brother also named. Sarah Ann Ramsey marries John Patterson in Tuscaloosa Co. in Feb. 26, 1824. Later in the paper it says "Rebecca Poole (daughter of Adam Poole and Elizabeth (Betsy) Pennington) married Mr. LANE" Wrong again. Her name was Rebecca Lane Poole and she was an infant when mentioned in her grandfather Abel's will. She married in 1836 in Autauga Co. to Henry Box McCain. (These are my g-g-grandparents). At least SOME of the confusion may be the repeat of the name Elizabeth in so many generations!"

115. Shelley W. Gregory, Abel d. 1819 is my g-g-g-g-grandfather. His daughter Betsy who m1 Henry Ramsay and m2 Adam Poole is my g-g-g-grandmother. Their daughter Rebecca Lane Poole who was mentioned in Abel's will is my g-g-grandmother. I corresponded years ago with Marian Shumate Ward who is my second cousin once removed. She was a member and contributed material on Abel (I), as he was called, years ago..

121. Shelley W. Gregory, Betsy was first married to Henry Ramsey (Ramsay) and their child Sarah Ann (Salley) is mentioned in the court records in Georgia in the settlement of his estate. Sarah A. Ramsey married John Patterson and is found in the 1850 Tuscaloosa Co. AL census as 44 yrs. old and born in "Geo." and 7 children listed. Years ago in the PP Marian S. Ward, my second cousin once removed, wrote on the children of Betsy and mistakenly thought "Salley Ann Ramsey" was "already married."

Eighth Alabama Infantry Regiment

This was the first Alabama command that enlisted "for the war." It was organized by the appointment of its field officers by the war department. The regiment lay at Yorktown, Virginia, the first eleven months of its service, and a detachment of it was engaged in a skirmish near Winn's Mill. Placed in Gen. Pryor's brigade, the regiment fell back with the army till the enemy overtook it at Williamsburg. It won its first laurels on that fiercely-contested field, losing about 100 men. At Seven Pines it was again under the most deadly fire, and its loss was 32 killed, 80 wounded, and 32 missing. Now in the brigade of Gen. Wilcox, --with the Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, and Fourteenth Alabama regiments-- the Eighth was under fire at Mechanicsville, and took part in the desperate assault of Longstreet's division on the enemy's position at Gaines' Mill, and emerged victoriously from the bloody combat with the loss of half of the 350 men it had engaged. Three days later, the regiment was in the line of assault at Frazier's Farm, where it met Meagher's Irish brigade, and of 180 effective men, only 90 were at regimental muster the next morning. Its ranks soon began to fill up, and the Eighth marched with the army towards the Potomac. At the second battle of Manassas it was under a destructive fire, and lost about 60 men, but was held in reserve. The regiment took part in the capture of Harper's Ferry, then crossed the river and fought obstinately at Sharpsburg, where it lost 67 killed and wounded. It wintered at Rappahannock, and lost slightly at Fredericksburg. At Salem Church, Wilcox's brigade of Alabamians, of which it was part, bore the brunt of the federal assault, and drove them back in confusion, capturing 1500 prisoners; the Eighth losing 58 men killed and wounded. It was in the exultant army that Lee led into Maryland the second time, and its colors were flouted in the face of death at Gettysburg; where of 420 engaged, 260 were left on the bloody field. With the army it recrossed the Potomac, and wintered in the vicinity of Orange C.H. The regiment was again hotly engaged at the Wilderness, losing heavily, and at Spottsylvania suffered considerably. It was under fire nearly every day as the federal army pressed up to Richmond, and its loss was severe at the second Cold Harbor. At Petersburg the Eighth again suffered largely. It fought the cavalry raid on the Weldon Railroad, and participated in the capture of the "Crater." At Deep Bottom the regiment participated with some loss, and lost heavily in the attempt to dislodge the enemy from their position on the Weldon Railroad. The regiment assisted at the repulse of the foe on the plank road below Petersburg, and fought cheerfully on the retreat up the James. At Appomattox the remnant indignantly denied the first rumors of the contemplated surrender, many wept like children at the announcement, and the survivors tore their battle-rent banner into shreds to retain as a memento. Of 1377 men on its roll, the Eighth had 300 killed or mortally wounded, over 170 died of disease, and 236 were discharged or transferred.
