

Mr. Dean Scott Attaway
122 Steeplechase N.
Columbia SC 29209

I responded to his query in the AGS newsletter and he sent me the enclosed information. I gave him names of Eva Platts Copeland (1816-1891)'s parents John Platts, Jr and Susannah More Platts and sent him a copy of your family sheet on John Platts, Jr.

At the time he sent me this information he evidently did not know your Sarah Copeland (1813-1844), but perhaps he now knows more about the family as he also has a DEER Family paper done by Brent Holcomb in 1984. As you say, however, skeletons do keep turning up in the most unlikely places.

Thanks for your prompt, supportive, and delightful letter!
Rose-Marie

Wm. Martin Carter (23 April 1840 - 6 Jan 1882) was second husband of Abeline Mohala / Mahala Elizabeth Platts. According to Hiers, p. 294, he was the son of Janie Hiers + Henry Carter. What do you know about Henry Carter (and his father who evidently married (2) Elizabeth Frances Betsey Hiers)?

Henry Carter was an heir to George Platts' estate settled in 1844. All the other heirs are either the sisters of George Platts, their children, or brother David's children and grandchildren, and, of course, the widow Levice who remarried George Priester. George Platts died intestate with no heirs and brother John administered the estate. I am curious: If Henry were Nancy Platts' son, grandson, or the guardian of one of her grandchildren, he would have gotten a full share (which he did) only if she had no other heirs. Curious!
