

The Theus Family

1. Col. James Theus was your great-grandfather who served with great gallantry under Gen. Marion.
2. His daughter Theodoria Theus was your grandmother who intermarried with your grandfather Joseph Pope.
3. Their son, Joseph James Pope, was your father who intermarried with Sarah Jenkins, as already stated in the Scot family and the Jenkins family.

Note: Col. James Theus is mentioned by Dr. Ramsey in his history of South Carolina with high praise.

His name is on record in the Secretary of State's office in Columbia, S. C. as "a distinguished officer in the Revolutionary War".

I rather think that the Theus family were Southerners as they were of German extraction. The portrait of our great grand uncle Simeon (?) Theus hangs in the City Hall in Charleston, S. C. He was the first Republican collector of the port of Charleston, S. C., appointed by Washington.

This was written by Joseph Pope - Decem of law at Univ. of S. C.

Sent me by Mrs. J. M. Pope Sr.