

Henrietta Rhodes.

Henrietta Rhodes, daughter of John Rhodes and Mary Talbird, was born at Beaufort, S. C., in 1792, and died March 26, 1852. Her husband and herself are buried at Whale Branch plantation.

She first married Dr. Paul Hamilton. He died Oct. 5, 1817—leaving one child, Col. Paul Hamilton, who still survives, and resides at Port Royal, S. C. He married Catherine Campbell, Sept. 13, 1837, and has a number of children and grandchildren, who reside at different points in Beaufort District, S. C.

After the death of her first husband Mrs. Hamilton married the Rev. William T. Potter, in June, 1830. He died March 8, 1879. They had no ^{surviving} children, ^{their dau., Henrietta Rhodes Potter, dying 11 Feb. 1834 in} infancy. I remember my aunt, Mrs. Hamilton, or Potter. My father and mother lived on a plantation adjoining Cotton Hall from 1830 to 1837. She was a woman of very superior intellect and culture.

As before stated, the facts and dates from which these sketches have been prepared, were obtained from family memoranda, and from letters of Col. Paul Hamilton, and Mrs. Anne H. Waring, and from a letter of Dr. Henry Talbird, copies of which accompany this paper, and will be found to contain many interesting details not herein mentioned. The account of the Talbird family, by Rev. Dr. Henry Talbird, will also be found very interesting in its details.
