

Rhodes Company

Since 1916

Madison, Ga.

Monday 5/1/78

My dear Cousin

My vision having improved
somewhat, I got around to reading
your "Jules of Antebellum Filled Head".
I was amazed at the minute information and so greatly enjoyed it, spent the entire afternoon with it. It brought back to me so many things I remembered of some time I spent at "Uncle Jim's" and "Papa's" and the people I came in contact with.
As you know "Nathan's" niece is at "County" and went over to "Pud's" with "Motta" for a while, and the pictures.

It has interested me so much as to possibility of our ever being some family as "Ced" & "Lulu" as he tells from some great territorial, according to me. Not in business.

Rhodes Company

Since 1916

Madison, Ga.

you know the sons born 1853, while our crowd left there about 1940

I wonder if there is any information or encl. or ph. as to the fortress which might be conclusive - all general information please he would be about age 20 for sure!

I am having 39 birthday next Wed. 7/1, but still full like little boys the Martha doesn't agree with me.

Would you be know how much I enjoyed your brochure!

Look forward to seeing you
both, but you too long.
Lots of love.

After yours
Paul C. J. J.
(over)

Dear Cousins - Paul was so pleased to have news and pictures from Bridenorth. Our niece has worked at Coventry Cathedral during the past year and has had wonderful experiences - she - with a group of British students spent a month travelling to the Holy Land. They camped out near the Sea of Galilee and spent Easter in Jerusalem - This niece will be joined by her mother and older sister this week. They will fly to London on Wednesday. Her younger sister will work at Coventry during the summer.

Hope you are well and enjoying a very beautiful spring. All of Madison will be busy next week with hundreds of guests expected for tours of homes - May 8th, 9th, 10th. We will be at our church

With love and Best wishes, Maitha.