Hi Clayton,
Just a snippet of information for you.
From a 1784 Poll book for the Bridgnorth Parliamentary Election.
These RHODES were listed in Bridgnorth.
John, carpenter 2 Jan 1765; Tho's, shoemaker 22 Jan 1747;
Nath'l, gentleman 29 Aug 1737; Luke, brazier 11 Sept 1780;
John, druggist 20 March 1799; Tho's, shoemaker -;

Can anyone please explain what the date is by each name? In a few cases, such as the one shown above, the date is many years later than the Election.

hi
the name you want is rindleford 2 miles from worfield, the mill is still there but is apartments , i used to walk past it daily going to school , it is on the river worfe i believe the waterwheel is still there hope this will help
In response to:
I am trying to decipher the 1742 will of my ancestor Nathaniel Rhodes of Bridgenorth. He mentions his "oyl" mill at "Rudtoford" (cannot decipher this) in the parish of Worfield. Does anyone know what this might be?
