

Jan 22, 1891

SMA

VILLE.

also complaining of other with lung com-of John Swartwout, being dangerously ill

had a stroke of apoplexy confined to her right side, driving winter for coal weather burns coal as in fact, some of the the doors are on the dairy, complain that to buy nearly double ply.

trade has been on the the grain wherewith to feed of those who want a whole winter we are V. E. Crisman & Sons red of nice dry buck- l on Monday evening a wizard, entertained Hall on Friday and a large stock of tricks The performance was evening. The Jubilee Hall, under the an- lan church, is the next 1 promisee good enter- ople.

was marked for Geo. N. ber of years, less than ing that for his home arriving there at the his family went out to one but a short distance ey found the body of the side of the road, dy fallen in a fit and is quite prevalent horbeed. What was at heavy colds has taken ic, and upon prostrates ots of the disease are these, the patient com- all the time, perspir- eroids. The disease at sundays after which s to retain food on the

REBORN DEPARTS.

Man, Timothy E. Shay.

The death of Hon. Timothy E. Shay, which occurred at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. I. E. Bunkley on Thursday evening last, removes one of the oldest and best-known men from the valley west of the Allegheny. He had lived to the ripe old age of 75 years, 3 months and 13 days. Since the death of his wife, which occurred in February last, he had lived most of the time with his daughter, Mrs. Dayton Cole and Mrs. I. E. Bunkley. He was at the house of the latter on Wednesday last, and after having taken dinner with the family, he attempted to go up a pair of out-door steps to the sitting room, the family still remaining at the table. They heard him fall, and hurried to his aid, found him lying in an unconscious condition, in which condition he lay about half an hour, after which he revived and could talk plainly and was entirely rational until the time of his death which occurred at about 3 o'clock on Thursday night, Jan. 18th.

He was a son of the late Ephraim Shay, of Hainesville, and a grandson of Timothy Shay, who came from Virginia about the time of the Revolution and settled in Sandusky township, having purchased the farm recently known as the "Josh-the-C. Shay farm," now occupied by Geo. W. Shay; His wife, Catherine Layton, daughter of John Layton, died Feb. 4, 1850, aged about 25 years. They lived together as man and wife for nearly 60 years, having celebrated their golden wedding Jan. 8, 1851. For the past three years he had been totally blind, but for most of his long and laborious life he had enjoyed good health. The farm which he owned at the time of his death was purchased by him about sixty years ago, and upon it he spent the whole of his married life and reared his family, the surviving members of which are: Levi, residing in Sandusky; Terence, wife of Isaac E. Bunkley, residing near Walpack Centre; Esther, wife of Geo. E. Wray, of Otseville, N. Y.; Elizabeth, of Fort Jervis; Evadne, wife of Dayton Cole, of Walpack, and Allen E., of Newton. Three had previously died, viz: James, John, and Abbie, wife of Hiram Tappan.

Mr. Shay was one of the first trustees of the M. E. Church, of Walpack Centre, of which he had been a member for sixty years, and in which he had held every official position. His wife was a member of the same church for about fifty-four years.

He was an interesting conversationalist, and after he became blind he delighted to recall and relate the incidents of his past life. Through his long and useful life he maintained the reputation of being an upright and honest man. He had no enemies, and his memory is held in universal respect by the people of that valley. He was a hard-working, energetic and thrifty farmer, and

BANK DIVIDENDS.

The Sussex National Bank has declared semi-annual dividend of 5 per cent.

The Merchants' National Bank has declared a semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent.

The Farmers' National Bank of Deckertown declares a semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent.

The Orange County Bank, at Goshen, has declared a semi-annual dividend of 2 per cent.

The Goshen National Bank has declared a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent.

The Merchants' and Manufacturers' Bank of Middletown, has declared a dividend of 3 per cent.

The National Bank of Fort Jervis has declared a semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent.

The Chesler National Bank has declared a semi-annual dividend of 2 1/2 per cent.

The total capital stock of the banks in Sussex county is $250,000, divided as follows:

Sussex National Bank.....	$100,000 00
Merchants' National Bank.....	100,000 00
Farmers' Nat. Bank, Deckertown	100,000 00

Total..... $300,000 00

The surplus and undivided profits of these institutions amount to $222,977 16, as follows:

Sussex National Bank.....	$120,000 00
Merchants' National Bank.....	64,975 24
Farmers' Nat. Bank, Deckertown	48,000 00

Total..... $222,977 16

The individual deposits subject to check in these institutions amount to $245,512 77, as follows:

Sussex National Bank.....	$140,000 00
Merchants' National Bank.....	$70,000 27
Farmers' Nat. Bank, Deckertown	$44,512 64

Total..... $254,512 77

The total capital stock of the banks in Warren county is $750,000, divided as follows:

Phillipsburg National Bank.....	$200,000 00
Belvidere National Bank.....	200,000 00
Hackettstown National Bank.....	150,000 00
Washington National Bank.....	100,000 00

Total..... $750,000 00

The surplus and undivided profits of these banks amount to $492,933 19, as follows:

Belvidere National Bank.....	$177,007 14
Phillipsburg National Bank.....	124,000 00
Hackettstown National Bank.....	97,000 00
Washington National Bank.....	94,926 05

Total..... $492,933 19

Bank Officers Elected.

On Tuesday of last week the annual election of directors and officers of the First Na-

R
B
P
A A commit of all
Governor
Hec
Of Wh
E Houch
TUESD
Our impo

is quite prevalent blood. What was at every cold has taken and soon prostrates the patient, and the disease runs all the time, perspiration. The disease, ten days, after which to obtain food on the probably a score or fifteen now, among Cassels, John Kaiser, post carrier, has in-label about the scarcity of re forever, if the prop reader on the same is hard to estimate is winter within the p; but it is immense. reamery at 800 tops, at pucker in the town, milkman, member, or gathering crops tons, the whole crop thousands of tons, lit). On the last day, he put and put in 2232 inches for the cars were estimated together with the ice, my memory is correct present spell was on mber and the Sun or made an impression is laughing has been that time: For those do, gathering wood or ver more propitious, on compelled to go on regarding their vel- with fear and trem- and accidents occa- sion have occurred in hard to tell), but they red and driving has by delays and wagens 1 turn of the roads
 On Sunday last Mr. returning home from with his family in a the corner near the David and his sleigh ing in contact with a started the occupants out injury to any. Mr. diding fast and stop- other such accidents held a member for six years, and in which he had held every official position. His wife was a member of the same church for about fifty-four years.

He was an interesting conversationalist, and after he became blind he delighted to recall and relate the incidents of his past life. Through his long and useful life he maintained the reputation of being an upright and honest man. He had no enemies, and his memory is held in universal respect by the people of that valley. He was a hard-working, energetic and thrifty farmer, and at one time had accumulated a handsome estate. He assisted his neighbors liberally, and had been very liberal with his children. He was a life-long Democrat of the Jeffersonian school, and as such represented his district in the New Jersey Assembly in 1852, '53 and '54. He had also held various township offices. In his public, as in his private life, his record is unstained.

The funeral took place on Monday of this week, at 10 A. M., the services being conducted by the Rev. Mr. Price, pastor of the Walpack Centre M. E. Church.

Andrew Roy Crane.

At his late residence, near Wakertown, the death of Mr. Andrew Roy Crane occurred on Tuesday, January 3, 1911, after a brief illness. He was taken ill with a severe cold which developed into pneumonia, which caused his death. Mr. Crane was born near Wakertown and spent nearly his whole life in Frankford township, and was in his 73d year at the time of his death. He followed the cooper's trade in his early life, but for the past thirty-five years devoted his time to agricultural pursuits on his farm on which he died. In politics he was a Republican, but never sought office. His beloved wife and companion, Cornelia Reeves, departed this life about four years since. She was an estimable Christian woman, universally beloved by hosts of warm friends at home and abroad. She was a most genial and bright entertainer, the life and inspiration of a company. He was an honest upright man, courteous and unassuming in manner, a kind and affectionate husband and true friend. They were extremely fond of the society of young people, quick and ready to appreciate merit in others, and their hospitality was unbounded. He is survived by an only son, Theodor W., who was for sometime a teller in the Farmer National Bank of Leaks-town, but recently has been at home aiding his father in managing his affairs. He has the sympathy of the entire community in his bereavement.

The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. A. N. Higgins on Sunday, 11th inst., at the Beersville Presbyterian Church. Mr. Higgins preached an able and appropriate sermon, selecting for his text the 7th verse of the 15th chapter of First Corinthians. The singing was by a quartette choir, composed of Mrs. A. N. Higgins, soprano, Miss Lottie Gouse, contralto, Mr. Chas. Brown, tenor, Mr. C. Hockleberry, bass, with Miss Ida Hockleberry presiding at the organ. Interment in the Beersville cemetery.

Ellis Gould.

Ellis Gould, who resided in a tenant house of Mr. George M. Armstrong, near Falls town, Frankford township, dropped dead in the road while on his way home from his daily labor, on Tuesday.

The surplus and undivided profits of these banks amount to $42,333 18, as follows:

Bellvidere National Bank.....	$17,247 14
Phillipsburg National Bank.....	124,055 39
Hackettstown National Bank.....	57,045 88
Washington National Bank.....	20,031 77
Total.....	$42,333 18

Bank Officers Elected.

On Tuesday of last week the annual election of directors and officers of the First National Bank, of Washington, took place, and resulted as follows: Directors—S. T. Smith, D. Vliet, F. M. Uehlen, W. G. Dufford, Wm. S. Rittenhouse, P. H. Hann. The directors elected the following officers: President, P. H. Hann; Vice President, S. T. Smith; Cashier, Wm. S. Rittenhouse.

This bank to-day is in a most prosperous condition and its business is constantly on the increase, largely due to the careful management of its officers. Mr. Rittenhouse has held the position of cashier about five months, and during that time he has won the respect and good will of all having business to transact at that institution, by his accommodating and agreeable manner. He is also very attentive to duty and is thus a most valuable officer to the stockholders.

The G. A. E. Monument Fund.

The G. A. E. Monument Committee met at the Directors' Room of the Merchants' National Bank, Newton, on Wednesday, the 14th inst., pursuant to a call of the President, Chaplain A. A. Haines. The traveling being bad and the weather cold, as many were not present as was desirable, and but little business was done. In making up the receipts to the fund it was ascertained that the following amounts of money had been received:

Lafayette.....	$102
Montgomery.....	82
Hardyston.....	111
Frankford.....	50
Walpack.....	12
Newton.....	178
Frankford.....	50
Byram.....	9
Sumner County Fund.....	25
Outside of County.....	28
Total.....	656

Frankford has since paid in $6, and there are other moneys still in hands of Superintendents which would undoubtedly have been paid in on the day of the meeting had the weather and traveling been so that they could have been present. While the collections have not been as favorable as the committee could have wished, it is believed that the formalization of other plans of soliciting will eventually produce all the money needed.

NATHANIEL E. BRAY, Secretary.

The following is the list of collections made for the G. A. E. Fund in the Long Bridge School District in Frankford township, by Miss Anna Black collector under Joseph E. Layton, Superintendent of collections:

Mary A. Burns..... $ 00

TUESDAY

Our important news are very interesting. Subscribers receive marked and Nancy... The Lincoln... Demand... A complete... Rich... A new and... An elegant... A special... Most of the... for us and... this. We are... for the price

HEAR

777 &
 A
 The co- part of Some me part of because and gone lieve that all the th- lief, we a reasonable will inst- off den- quire th may wan

STON
 amove to the John K.