Re: Thom(p)son of NY/NJ

Dear Paul,

I am including below a descendency chart for my John(nnes) T(h)ompson, or in actuality a chart for his father Archibald Toomson. I too would like to learn more about the families and their roots. I also would like to received information on your Thompson families. I am including five generations in the chart as I felt you would be interested in the marriages of the descendants. I often find a clue there.

Have you seen THE HISTORY OF ST. PETER'S CHURCH IN PERTH AMBOY NEW JERSEY From Its Organization in 1698 To The Year 1923; by Rev. W. Northey Jones, M.A.

I was sent a copy of pages 479-481 on a Thomson family. I do not have the publisher or the actual date of publication.

"William Thomson I landed at Perth Amboy from Aberdeen, Scotland, on the HENRY ANN FRANCES in December 1865. Margery, Alexander and Janet Thomson were passengers on the same vessel. Margery and William purchased building lots and erected houses thereon. His son, 1a.

1a. John married Hannah _____. Their children 1b-2b.

1b. Alexander died May 14, 1763, aged 39 years.

2b. William II married, Aug. 20, 1770, Perthenia Schuyler, and resided in Perth Amboy, on High Street. He was a soldier in the Middlesex County Regiment in the Revolution.

Their children 1c-7c:

1c. Ann b May 21, 1771

2c. Alexander b Sept. 10, 1772

3c. John - II born Oct. 30, 1775

4c. William - III - born in Edinburgh, Scotland, June 22, 1777, died Oct 18, 1835.

Buried in St. Peter's Church Yard, where a table tomb has been erected in his memory.

5c Abram Renwick b in Perth Amboy, Jan 27 1782 d Sep 12, 1820; married Hannah Ball Garrison of Caldwell, NJ, at Hanover, NJ on Apr 16, 1806. Their tomb inscriptions are north of the Nave at St. Peter's.

Their children are: (also listed).....

6c. James b in Scotland, Nov 13, 1786. Foather of Wm Thomson IV, (Lord Kelvin) the most noted man of the family. The well known scientist.

7c. Samuel Clinton b May 25, 1816, died Jan 20, 1865 m first Ann Billar. They removed from Amboy to Newark."

Well, I have managed to let this get rather wordy and perhaps am sending much information which does not apply or is of no interest to you. I will look forward to hearing from you concerning the families. Please keep me in mind if we have common ancestry. Judith

Re: Thompson connections (?)

Greetings fellow Thompson family researchers:

The Thompson family I am trying to trace is as follows:

(my Hubbies Mother) Rennie Frances Thompson, born 7 Aug. 1913 Maupin, OR
(her Father) John Robert Thompson born 27 Nov. 1880 Mosier, OR
His parents: John Thompson, Born Feb 1849 in IOWA
Jennie Whitcomb, Born May 1856 in Dearborne Co (?), Indiana

I have been run into a brick wall over John Thompson and Jennie. As you know, John is a very common name (not to mention the Thompson last name).

Sorry, but I have no other information at this time, but am still trying to wring it out of distant Aunts. Will keep you in my files, for future reference.

Best wishes for success in your hunts.

Hello

Any information on this family?

Walter & Mary Ann (Thompson) NUTT

Obit of Mary Ann Thompson Nutt - from Washborn family records:
Mother of Louisa (Nutt) Washburn

Mary Ann Thompson was born November 1826, at Sparta, Sussex, New Jersey and was married to Walter L. Nutt, January 2nd., 1848, in Delaware County, Ohio. To this union were born twelve children; eight boys and four girls, only five of whom are living. Mrs. Nutt had been a widow for thirty-five years, her husband having died in 1879. She was converted in early life and joined the Methodist Church. She remained a member of this church until about forty-four years ago, when she joined the Missionary Baptist Church, of which she was a member at the time of her death. She died Sunday morning, November 22, 1914, at her home near Thornesberry, having been 88 years old. Funeral services were held at the Thornesberry church, at three o'clock Sunday afternoon, conducted by

Rev. W. I. Elledge, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Springdale, Arkansas.<>

I have an Andrew Thompson that was born sometime in the 1800 range based on a child (Benjamin S.) born on 10/6/1836. His wife was Mary Dick. All were believed born in NJ. The reference was the death certificate for Benjamin, however, my father was quick to note the son that supplied the information (his uncle) may not have had the best memory. Benjamin later moved to Maryland (believed to be working for railroad), etc. etc.

Do you have any connective information? I obviously share. Thanks!

Re: Andrew Thompson

Hi!

In the process of researching my G Grandmother, Mahala E. Thompson, I find from census records that she is the daughter of Andrew Thompson and Susan Tuttle. These records indicate that Andrew and Susan were from KY, (poss. NY?). Mahala E. Thompson was born 12 May 1859 in Springfield, MO. This would indicate that her father would have been born abt. 1835. If these dates fit, or you ever make a connection, let me know. Best of luck, Phil

Connie Anderson posted my query and did not post my return e-mail address.
I am researching some THOMPSONs that married into my CURNUTTEs. Many of the THOMPSONs
that I have are listed below and are from Halifax Co., NC. The CURNUTTEs were from Grayson Co., Virginia, a county just across the Virginia/NC border.
They all migrated to Lawrence Co., KY.:

THOMPSON:Paul Thompson/MD,73232,225@Compuserve.com; Willing to share but so far my research has been primarily in NJ, PA, NY, OH, MI, IA, CA.

Paul.

I don't see a connection with our meager data. I'm going to keep your name as a THOMPSON researcher. As I communicate with other related researchers, in the future, shall I keep you on the cc list?

Please keep my name as a VA/KY THOMPSON researcher. If you know of other THOMPSON researchers, would you please send me their e-mail and snail address ? If you run into any THOMPSON books, I would also be interested.

Thanks for your reply.

Re: roots

Are you related to Loring F. Thompson, born in Londonderry VT in 1844? If so, I have info dating to 1600's.

Looking for ancestore/decendants of James Thompson of near Red Stone Fort, PA.
Dec. went to OH and some later to CA. Alsop would like to trade data with anyone researching Thompsons.

I am looking for information on Samuel Thompson d.1827 or 1828 in Otsega Co NY. His wife's name was Grizzel (!) they were from NH before NY at least the first 6 of 9 children were born there. His children were, Russell, Caleb, Rufus, Nahum, Samuel, Rebecca (married Eaton),Roxa(married Chase) Annie (married Hockum or Holcomb)and Hannah( married Hockum or Holcomb). Rebecca Thompson Eaton is my ancestor, and I also know nothing of her after 1860. She died in either 1861 or 1864- anyone know anything that can help me?

Thanks

Jayne Conard

Researching the following THOMPSON family: Charles H. THOMPSON b c. 1855 Ohio(?); m Catherine; d Chicago 1922. Believe that Charles had a brother named Henry. Charles and Catherine had the following children: Charles E. (my maternal grandfather), Elsie, Albert, William, Harry, Robert, Dave, Josephine, perhaps all born in Cincinnati. At some time the family moved to Chicago where they remained. My grandfather, Charles E., was born in 1885; m Jeannette Louise LAIB Dec. 2, 1909 in Chicago; d Feb. 4, 1940 Chicago. Does anyone recognize this family? I'd be most grateful for any help via e-mail, and will acknowledge same.
