EDITOR'S CORNER

This issue is the last one for the year 1998, and contains the annual index.

The unfortunate part of having the index is that it takes up so much room that it replaces other information that could be included in the last number. Without the index, however, the newsletter would be difficult to absorb, to say the least. The index helps group people together by locale, and occasionally points out the possibility of a tie to others. Of course, the best reason for offering an index is to help the reader find a certain person or place in the four issues of the year.

For those of you who have not been researching Ludlows/Ludlams, and Ludlums long, please don't forget to look at all the people who might be of interest to you in spite of the spelling of the surname in one record or another. The three variations of spelling are often interchangeable.

You will also find enclosed a subscription renewal slip for 1999. I hope that you will want to renew your subscription, and perhaps contribute information for publication in the second volume.

Thank you for your support.
